Dilemma Eased By Bill

Governor Signs Bill To Allow Adjusting County Tax Levy With Assessments

JEFFERSON CITY — A bill designed to ease the tax worries of 26 counties ordered to increase their assessments to 30 per cent of market value was signed by Gov. Phil M. Donnelly today.

The bill carried an emergency clause to make it effective at once.

Twenty-six counties have been ordered by the State Tax Commission to bring their assessment levels from less than 20 per cent up to 30 per cent. Some of them have protested vigorously.

The new law calls for an automatic cut in tax levies to produce the same amount of revenue as before whenever a county's valuation is boosted 10 per cent or more.

A special provision protects school districts and other taxing units which get state aid. They would not have to lower their levies below the minimum required to qualify for state aid.

The governor commented that he knew there had been hot arguments about the bill in the Legislature but in his opinion it was constitutional.

Also signed was a bill revising the mental commitment law to include a method of voluntary commitment to state hospitals. It replaces a 1953 law which was declared unconstitutional by the State Supreme Court.

The bill was sponsored by a special Senate committee on mental health headed by Sen. Albert M. Spradling (D) of Cape Girardeau. He told the Legislature he thought the new version would meet the objections the Supreme Court had to the old law.

A bill extending the Saturday night closing time for Kansas City and St. Louis bars from midnight to 1:30 a.m. Sunday also was signed. The city councils, by ordinance, also could do away with the present period of midnight Sunday to 1:30 a.m. Monday when saloons may open under the present law.

The measure was sponsored by Kansas City interests who said the later Saturday night closing time traffic to Jackson County might would prevent a dangerous flow of spots.

An entirely new probate code will take effect next Jan. 1 under another bill signed today. The bill was developed by a special House-Senate committee and had the support of various bar association groups.

It was the bulkiest measure passed by the 1955 Legislature—156 printed pages and 355 sections. It covers the law on descent and distribution, wills, administration of estates, guardianship of minor and insane persons, probate courts and so on.

Lawyers have said it would take years of litigation to establish all the new probate procedures by court decisions.

Launch Capsizes With Ten Feared Perished

NAIROBI, Kenya — A launch carrying Mau Mau convicts and their guards capsized in the crocodile-infested waters of Lake Victoria today. At least 10 persons perished.

The accident occurred about 50 yards out from Kenya's "Devil's Island," where Mau Mau fanatics are imprisoned. Lake Victoria, largest in Africa and chief source of the Nile, is noted for its sudden, severe storms.

Hurts to Remember It

You people who are enjoying this balmy summer weather may recall that exactly one year ago today the temperature broke all records for Sedalia — reaching a terrible 116. Grasshoppers infested the city, trees were shedding their leaves, lawns were yellow gardens were burned. We had already had 14 days of 100-degree temperature or more and there were 14 more such days to come.

Partly cloudy, warm and humid with scattered showers or thunderstorms tonight. Partly cloudy Friday. Low tonight in low 70s. High tomorrow near 90.

The temperature at 7 a.m. was 70; it was 90 degrees at 2 p.m.

The temperature one year ago today, high 116, low 80; two years ago, high 88, low 60; and three years ago, high 87, low 69, with .65 inch of rainfall.

Real Estate Values Higher--

Tax Evaluation Has Risen Over $1 Million For Pettis County Through Current Year

Sedalia's assessed tax evaluation has once more climbed to a new peak this year, giving the town two consecutive years of assessment evaluation over $50 million.

According to Jim Green, county clerk, if a county's tax evaluation stays above $50 million for five consecutive years, the county becomes eligible for a rating as a second class county. If Sedalia's prosperity continues at its present rate this goal seems not too far in the future.

For 1955, Sedalia showed an increased evaluation of $1,423,705.

The total figure, which is subject to some changes by the Board of Equalization and the County Court of Appeals, for 1955 is $52,252,126. This is compared to $50,828,421 for 1954, and gives a total increase of assessed county evaluation of $1,423,705.

The largest gain in any one category was for town lots. This year showed an increase of $980,340.

Convict Gets Life Term For Murder

Paul Kenton Feels That He Received Improper Justice

UNION, Mo. — Paul E. Kenton was convicted of first degree murder and sentenced to life imprisonment by a circuit court jury late last night for the killing of another convict during Missouri's prison riot last September.

The 24-year-old Kenton was the fourth convict convicted in the slaying of Walter Lee Donnell, an informer, during the Sept. 22 riot. Three others are awaiting trial.

The jury deliberated about one hour before returning its verdict to Circuit Judge Joseph T. Tate. Kenton's defense attorney was granted 40 days in which to file a motion for a new trial.

Kenton, who appeared to take the verdict calmly, was heard to remark to a friend seated beside him when the announcement was made: "A typical miscarriage of justice." He was taken back to the Franklin County jail.

The state had demanded the death penalty for Kenton, who signed a confession in the case but repudiated it during the three-day trial.

An entirely new probate code will take effect next Jan. 1 under another bill signed today. The bill was developed by a special House-Senate committee and had the support of various bar association groups.

It was the bulkiest measure passed by the 1955 Legislature—156 printed pages and 355 sections. It covers the law on descent and distribution, wills, administration of estates, guardianship of minor and insane persons, probate courts and so on.

European Heat Wave Causes Much Hardship

LONDON — Forest fires in Sweden and water rationing in Denmark today brought new hardships to Europeans in the grip of a week-long heat wave.

The seven-day death toll climbed to at least 70, as temperatures stayed well up into the 80s over most of Western Europe.

Shirtless Londoners spent the night cooling off in parks only to sweater as another scorching dawned.

For the first time in Sweden's history, ice cream had to be rationed as perspiring citizens made a run on the shops. The temperatures soared into the 90s, the hottest since 1933.

News Flashes--

House Revises System Of Military Benefits

WASHINGTON — The House voted yesterday for a broad overhaul of government payments to the survivors of servicemen.

Passage by voice vote sent the proposed measure to the Senate, where it is uncertain whether it can be acted on before the session's end.

The bill would do away with the present $10,000 free insurance for men in uniform, put all service members under social security and provide more liberal Veterans Administration compensation payments to their surviving widows, dependent children and parents.

Three Killed In Crash Near Litchfield, Ill.

LITCHFIELD, Ill. — Three members of an East St. Louis, Ill., family were seriously injured Wednesday in an auto-truck collision near Litchfield.

These figures compare with $7,561,662 for state assessed corporations in 1954, the merchant and manufacturer property being assessed at $1,390,170.

This gives an increase of $508,405 for the state assessed corporations, with the merchants' and manufacturers' property dropping $32,890.

Former Sedalian, Clinton Man Dead In 1-Car Accident

A former Sedalian, Norman Duncan, 39, now residing at Windsor, and a man identified as Eugene King, 47, Clinton, were instantly killed about 10 p.m. Wednesday in a one-car automobile accident 4 miles south of the Jackson-Cass County line on U.S. Highway 71 By-Pass.

The men were identified by Sgt. Fred Rodecker of the Patrol and Dr. Gerard Zauder, Cass County coroner.

The State Highway Patrol was notified of the accident at 10:04 p.m. by a man who called and stated he found the accident when he was passing as a result of hearing a horn blowing. Stopping to investigate, he found the car hanging in a tree just off a curve, and one man hanging in the branches, the other thrown from the car. The motorist's name was not obtained.

The State Patrol at Lees Summit reported the car apparently was driven by Eugene King, as the car was registered in his name. From the accident it was impossible to ascertain positively who might have been the driver.

The car was hanging in the tree with the left front wheel just off the ground.

King according to the Patrol had been thrown 65 feet south of the demolished automobile.

Marks on the highway indicated the Patrol said, the car was driven at a high rate of speed and failed to make a curve. The tree was far enough away from the highway and among brush in such a manner the accident might not have been discovered until daylight had the motorist not been attracted by the blowing of the car horn.

Sgt. Rodecker reported the car, a 1954 Mercury, was just completing a turn when the accident happened. He said as the car left the highway it struck a highway marker and then struck a large tree, glancing off and came to rest in three small elm saplings about 40 feet from the highway.

The body of Duncan was removed to the Langford Funeral Home in Lees Summit while the body of King was taken to the Atkinson Funeral Home at Harrisonville.

Thursday morning the body of Duncan was taken to the Huston-Turner Funeral Home at Windsor. The body of King was taken to the Sickman and Dunning Funeral Home at Clinton.

Duncan and his wife Doris resided at 500 East Fifth before moving to Windsor last December to live in his mother's home. His (Please turn to page 4, Column 3)

Missourians May Look For Rains Presently

KANSAS CITY — With several days of sunshine behind them, Missourians can dig out those umbrellas again. There's rain in sight.

A light rain was falling along the eastern Missouri border south of St. Louis this morning and Fulton in the east central portion of the state reported one inch by 10 a.m.

Showers or thunderstorms were forecast for southeast and east central Missouri in the afternoon, spreading to the northwest portion later and over the state by night.

Tomorrow should be partly cloudy with scattered showers or thunderstorms south and extreme east with highs ranging from 88 to 92. Temperatures tonight will be in the lower 70s.

Not Subversion--

Senate Committee Blames Army Errors For Discharge Of Major

WASHINGTON — The Senate Investigations subcommittee today blamed 48 errors and Army red tape—but not subversion—for the promotion and honorable discharge of Maj. Irving Peress after he refused to say whether he was a Communist.

It said Secretary of the Army Stevens, or perhaps some of his Pentagon bosses, did "a disservice" to the country by what it termed concealing facts about the case of the New York dentist for almost a year. It also accused "the Department of the Army" of some deceptive practices toward Congress.

But it made no mention of subversion in a formal report saying the case showed "individual errors in judgment, lack of proper coordination, ineffective administration procedures, inconsistent application of investigating regulations, and excessive delays."

President's Son Goes To Geneva With Father

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower's son, Army Maj. John S. D. Eisenhower, will accompany him to the Geneva Big Four conference as a personal aide.

The White House said the major now is on official leave between Army assignments. He recently was transferred from Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., to Ft. Belvoir, Va., near Washington.

The White House previously announced that Mrs. Eisenhower is going.

State Spends $73 Millions On Road Jobs

The Missouri Highway Commission spent or obligated the spending of $73,012,834 on state highway improvement projects furthering the 10-year highway program during the fiscal year which ended on June 30. State highway improvements made or contracted during the year extended over a total of 3,911.4 miles of roads.

These 1955 fiscal year commitments of $73,012,834 the total of $169,617,116 the total of monies committed or spent toward modernizing and expanding the state's highway system during the first three years of the program period, which got under way July 1, 1952. During those three years the highway improvements made or authorized have extended over 8,446.9 miles of highways.

During the fiscal year which ended June 30 the Commission obligated $49,225,922 for improving 584.9 miles of major system highways. This includes work done or contracted for on both urban and non-urban projects.

Another $18,704,613 went for constructing extensions to or improving 2,805.4 miles of highways in the supplementary highway system.

Also, during the year the Commission took over 1,774.4 miles of existing county roads for maintenance as temporary state roads pending their inclusion in the permanent state highway system. That comes after right of ways needed to develop them are made available without cost to the state. Expenditures totaling $246,068 were made on 521.1 miles of such roads to put them in proper condition to maintain them.

In addition, $4,836,231 also was committed during the year to right of way acquisitions for improvements to be made later.

Landing Gear Fails; 55 Passengers Unhurt

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sixty persons escaped injury early today when an Eastern Airlines Constellation skidded several hundred feet after its right landing gear collapsed on landing at National Airport.

An airline spokesman said many of the 55 passengers were shaken, but that none apparently was hurt. One of the passengers was Rep. Keating (R-NY). The plane carried a crew of five.

Rodger T. Davis Praised Highly For Good Work

Rodger T. Davis, FTC, USN, son of City Engineer and Mrs. W. C. Davis, was recently given this communication from the commanding officer of the U.S. Naval Submarine Base at Pearl Harbor.

"The Commanding Officers take great pleasure in commanding you on your outstanding performance of duty. As Chief Petty Officer in charge of the fire control shop, you have repeatedly demonstrated exceptional ability both as an officer and as a technical specialist.

"Through your initiative, energy and capable leadership, the amplifier facility was organized and placed in operation . . . as a result of your continued efforts and the excellent training you have given your men . . . You are congratulated on the fine personal and military record that you made while attached to this command."

Davis enlisted in the Navy at Poplar Bluff in 1942 and after training at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, he was sent to the Pearl Harbor post where he has been since that time.

After completing 30 months at the base he is now on leave until July 15 when he will be sent back to a school for further training. During the duration of the war, Davis spent the entire time on submarines in the Pacific. He received for five successful war patrols, the Bronze Star, the commendation ribbon, and a four-star submarine pin.

Discuss Social Plans

Plans for an ice cream social were discussed and then tabled for the next meeting of the Hughesville Happy Helpers 4-H Club at their regular meeting July 11 at the home of Judy Moon.

A square dance was held during the social hour and was conducted by Jim Perry. Mr. Perry's assistant, Miss Marilyn Anderson gave an interesting talk on "Milk Nutrition."

The meeting was attended by 10 members and seven visitors.

Watchful Eye On Settlement Of Contract

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Anderson (D-NM) said today the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee heads will keep close watch on how the government goes about settling the Dixon-Yates contract.

The committee failed in an effort to obtain from Atomic Energy Commission officials yesterday word as to just how the cancellation will be effected.

Noting that under the law his committee is to be kept informed of everything AEC does, Anderson said AEC is the government party to the contract and should negotiate the settlement.

He declared he had been disturbed about indications that Atty. Gen. Brownell might have charge of the negotiations, and added that if that happened, "there may be a settlement running into millions of dollars and we will know nothing about it."

Brownell and other administration officials have declined to guess what it may cost to cancel the contract. There have been some indications the Dixon-Yates group may seek several million dollars.

AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss told Anderson's committee he believes AEC should handle the cancellation. But he said this would not be settled until his agency gets a formal directive from the Budget Bureau. It was that bureau, acting as President Eisenhower's agent, which originally directed AEC to negotiate the contract.

Call Three Newsmen Before Senate Group In Red Investigation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Internal Security subcommittee called three additional newsmen today in a search for past or present Communists stretching from Brooklyn to Germany and Korea.

Hans Bruno Meyer, described as a nephew of the late Albert Einstein and as correspondent here for a German radio station, was among the trio called to a public hearing.

Other scheduled witnesses were Ira Henry Freeman of the New York Times and Ansel Talbert of the New York Herald-Tribune. There has been nothing in past testimony to link Talbert to communism.

All of them were called in an inquiry that opened June 28 when Winston M. Burdett, a CBS newsman, named more than a score of persons he said he had known as fellow Communists in the late 1930s or early 1940s.

Bachinski, business manager of Local 148, made the statement while charging the firm is "not bargaining" but standing pat on a wage offer previously rejected by the union.

The union represents 1,225 members employed by Union Electric power plants in Missouri, Illinois and Iowa.

Bachinski said in the last two negotiation sessions the company has not made any change in its previously rejected offer. Another session was scheduled for today at the request of federal conciliators Nicholas M. Fillo and Arthur R. Hale.

The union is demanding a 10-cent hourly wage increase plus fringe benefits. The previous company offer was four cents with no fringe benefits. The present wage averages $2.21 an hour.

Church Circle Meets With Mrs. W.A. Green

Mrs. W. A. Green's Circle of the Epworth Methodist Church, Broadway and Engineer, met July 12th, in the home of Mrs. W. A. Green with Mrs. Benton West assisting hostess. There were 17 members and nine guests.

The meeting opened with the repeating of the Circle Watchword. Silent prayers for the ill, shut-ins and the bereaved were ended with a prayer by Mrs. Green. A report was given that 50 sick calls had been made and 15 cars signed and sent.

Devotionals were given by Mrs. Ruby Standard, Mrs. Ruth Kirkhart and Mrs. Belle Heckenerlieable.

The next meeting will be August 9th, at which time the hostesses will be Mrs. A. C. Heckenerlieable and Mrs. Anna Ringen.

Community Club Has Monthly Meeting

The Smithton Community Club held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening July 12 with Bill Erling, president, presiding.

A discussion was held on the paper drive, scrap iron and old rags which is being continued during the months of July and August for the benefit of the new fire truck which was recently purchased. Plans are being made for an ice cream social on August 12 at the Smithton City Park. A committee was appointed to rearrange the lighting facilities in the park.

Tipton D. of I. Have Birthday Celebration

Our Lady Circle No. 222, Daughters of Isabella, entertained Monday evening, July 11th, in St. Andrew's School Hall, Tipton, with a dinner and program, the occasion being the thirty-third anniversary of the founding of the Circle.

Twenty-nine Losses Feared In Shipwreck

VERACRUZ, Mexico (UPI)—The crowded coastal passenger boat La Flecha sank last night in the storm-tossed Gulf of Campeche 40 minutes after sailing from Veracruz. Twenty-nine persons were feared lost.

Twenty-six persons were reported missing. Three bodies—an adult passenger and two children—were recovered and 37 persons were reported rescued.

All those aboard the 145-ton vessel were believed to be Mexicans.

The La Flecha sinking was the second marine disaster of the day in the Caribbean area. Early yesterday a Liberian ore carrier, the Sun Princess, rammed and sank the 6,155-ton British freighter Geologist off Trinidad. Nineteen crewmen of the Geologist were missing and the body of another was recovered.

The La Flecha went down about four miles off Veracruz. She was bound across the gulf for the port of Progreso, on the Yucatan Peninsula. Coast guard vessels and fishing boats searched throughout the night for survivors.

A rescued crewman said the La Flecha was carrying at least 66 persons. Her sailing list showed 32 passengers and a crew of 14 aboard, but many of those rescued were not on the list.

The cause of the sinking was not immediately determined. Heavy storms had swept the gulf area and survivors told of struggling against towering waves before being rescued. They said the ship went down so rapidly there was little time for launching lifeboats.

Hope for finding additional survivors from the sinking off Trinidad faded last night after a day-long air and sea search. Twenty-two survivors from the Geologist were picked up by the Sun Princess.

Four Found Dead In B-47 Crash Early Thursday

SHREVEPORT, La. (UPI)—The bodies of four men were removed from an Air Force B-47 Stratofortress which crashed 10 miles south of here early today, officials at Barksdale Air Force Base said.

A crash crew and civilian authorities reached the wreckage of the bomber about three hours after it crashed and burned shortly after midnight.

The victims, identified by dental charts, were listed by base officers as Capt. J. B. Brashear, 36, Newport, Ark., aircraft commander; Capt. L. R. Castle Jr., 32, San Angelo, Tex., pilot; Capt. C. J. De Jung, 33, Patzau, Wis., observer, and Airman 1C James Waller, 25, Dodson, La., crew chief.

Ralph Edward Anderson

Ralph Edward Anderson, 63, died Tuesday at the Bothwell Hospital, where he had been a patient after suffering a stroke several days ago.

He was born in 1892 in Elton County, Kan., and moved to Benton County three years ago near Edwards.

He is survived by his wife, Elva, of the home.

Funeral services will be held Friday at the Bethel Camp Grounds with the Rev. Oral Lee Van Horn officiating.

All were attached to the 512th Bomb Squadron of the 376th Bomb Wing.

The six-engined jet bomber crashed on the banks of the Red River. Part of the plane was submerged. Wreckage was strewn over a wide area.

Officers at Barksdale said an investigation at the scene was being hampered by a driving rain.

The Barksdale public information officer said two civilian witnesses said the plane burst into flames before it struck the ground.

Red General Invites Allied Correspondents To News Conferences

PANMUNJOM, Korea (UPI)—Communist Gen. Lee Cho today personally invited Allied correspondents to come to Pyongyang Aug. 15 and told them he would always be available for press conferences there.

He held his first such conference today and filled it with anti-American propaganda.

He accused the United Nations of trying to wreck the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission in Korea so that it could "illegally introduce (arms) and build up the puppet Syngman Rhee army."

Today's conference was an informal outdoor session between Lee, senior Communist member of the joint Military Armistice Commission, and four Allied newsmen.

On July 5, Parks prohibited Allied newsmen from accepting an invitation to a Lee press conference.

Parks today expressed a somewhat milder version of Allied disapproval.

Parks, however, did not prohibit Allied correspondents catching Lee outside a building and questioning him informally.

Reds Floating Food Cans With Explosives

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI)—The Chinese Nationalist Defense Ministry today charged the Chinese Communists were floating food cans loaded with high explosives in the Formosa Strait.

It warned fishermen not to be tempted.

The ministry said a fisherman who picked up a can was blown to bits.

The Ministry called that a "new kind of inhuman Communist warfare."

Crystal Gable Absent From Wedding Party

CRYSTAL BAY, Nev. (UPI)—Actor Clark Gable scheduled a gala wedding party last night at a Lake Tahoe resort but failed to show up and the management finally canceled his reservation.

Gable, who took Kay Williams Spreckels as his fifth wife Monday did not emerge from two days of seclusion at a friend's ranch in the high Sierra.

Marion Johnson, matron d'hotel at the plush Tahoe-Biltmore on the lake, commented:

"We've set up and torn up his table for 40 twice already. They're no better than anyone else. To hang with them."

A suite of 12 rooms had been reserved for the actor and his party, which was supposed to arrive at 8 p.m.

At 11 p.m. when no word was received from Gable or his friends Johnson declared the party was off.

Gas Rate Rebate Likely . . .

There may be some rebates coming to gas users in the Sedalia area if preliminary figures submitted to the Federal Power Commission by its staff stand up in hearings resumed this fall in Washington after a fiscal study of the Cities Service Gas Company.

On the basis of these figures the area gas rate is twice the size it should be. Cities Service is a supplier of Missouri Public Service, which serves the Sedalia area. Increases in gas rates here were made to conform to the extra tariff levied by Cities Service on MPS, the local company gaining nothing by the increase last September.

So if it is finally determined after hearings are resumed and completed in the fall that the rate increase was too great, local residential and industrial consumers will be in for a rebate. Money re-captured by the individual may not be enough to buy very many season tickets to the football games or complete payment on the power mower, but a rebate by any name is always acceptable even if it's applied against payment of a month's gas bill or two.

Cities Service Gas company is asking for approval of higher rates estimated to yield an additional 12½ million dollars a year in revenue. Opposing intervenors, including Kansas City, are expected to present their cases in September.

In summing up the preliminary staff figures, according to Jack Williams in the Kansas City Star, the FPC witnesses figured that on the cost of operation basis, allowing 6 per cent profit, the Cities Service was entitled to an income increase of $5,448,827 instead of the company figure of 12½ millions. If the Federal Power Commission should allow the company to pay its producing subsidiary, Cities Service Gas Producing company, the rate asked, the figure would be raised to $7,890,752.

Next fall the company will have its round to attack the figures of the FPC staff.

To the average gas consumer in Sedalia the technicalities of the figures and decimal points being tossed about in the FPC hearings are as numerous as the summer gnats or oat bugs infiltrating residential door screens. A gas rebate slip under the same doors when the figures are finally resolved in the interest of the consumer will be much more welcome.

Did Bankers, Military Conspire In TVA?

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — A congressional investigation into the manner in which retired military officers use their Army-Navy careers to get into big business, then use big business to influence government, has been long overdue. Various senators have talked about such a probe, and one might now be held in connection with Dixon-Yates.

How much did certain high-ranking Army-Navy officers have to do with trying to kill off the Tennessee Valley Authority through Dixon-Yates? How close were they to the First Boston Corporation and the Mellons? How close were they to General Eisenhower? These are questions a congressional committee might well investigate.

The facts go back to Pearl Harbor days when Frank Denton, president of the Mellon Securities Corporation, came to Washington as a colonel working for the late Gen. B. B. Somervell.

Colonel Denton in turn brought George Woods, president of the First Boston Corporation, to the Army as part of Somervell's entourage. It was General Somervell who pushed Denton for promotion to brigadier general and, after the war, General Denton, head of Mellon Securities, in turn got General Somervell made president of Mellon's Koppers Company.

Also after the war, George Woods of the First Boston and Denton of Mellon Securities merged their two companies; so that after 1946, Dick Mellon and his sister, Mrs. Allan Scaife, controlled the First Boston Corp., which, it is now revealed, put Adolphine Wenzell inside the budget bureau to concoct the Dixon-Yates project as a means of blocking TVA.

Admiral Enters Picture

The story, however, does not stop there. After the war, another high-ranking officer, Adm. Ben Moreell, was picked by the Mellons to become head of their Jones and Laughlin Steel Co.

And the other day, Admiral Moreell, as a member of the Herbert Hoover task force on public utilities, wrote a lengthy, highly technical recommendation that TVA be turned over to private companies. Admiral Moreell, a fine naval officer, knows almost nothing about public utilities and it would be interesting to ascertain who wrote the report for him.

A Senate committee might also inquire why those connected with the Mellons, from Adolphine Wenzell of the Mellon-controlled First Boston, to Morell of the Mellon-controlled Jones-Laughlin, were so interested in blocking TVA.

Another point. Why was another retired army officer, Gen. Herbert D. Vogel, picked by Ike out of nowhere to be made chairman of the Tennessee Valley Authority, a job hitherto held by civilians? Since taking that job, General Vogel has consistently voted against other TVA commissioners and for Dixon-Yates. Why was it that Ike picked this particular army officer? Who recommended him and why? Was he picked for the special purpose of gradually liquidating TVA and how close was he to the First Boston-Mellon interests before his appointment?

Guest Editorial—

ATLANTA (Ga.) CONSTITUTION: "JUVENILE DELINQUENCY."—Albany's Juvenile Delinquency project is off to a good start.

Initiated several weeks ago by a group of civic leaders, the JJD plan is to give recognition to the fine things young people do toward better citizenship and better communities. The program includes merit awards and selection annually of a "Boy of the Year" and "Girl of the Year."

Speaking this week to the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Hudson Malone, Albany Juvenile Court judge, told of the progress of the program as a juvenile delinquency preventive.

It is not just the psychologists who know that daring-do, like fording Niagara in a barrel, is an expression of the human desire for attention. So is some of the evil men do. Young people especially like to show off. The tendency often leads them into trouble.

If the human desire for recognition can be channeled into courses of useful, wholesome activity, then the ounce of prevention can eliminate the need for a lot of cure.

Arrests of persons under 18 in the United States have increased 43 per cent since 1950. "Juvenile Delinquency" tends toward improving a grave situation.

A great many retired generals have been appointed to high position of late and they should be scrutinized carefully if we are to safeguard our tradition of being a non-military nation.

A General Buys Oil

Last week, Congressman Dewey Short, Missouri Republican, denounced as "terrible" the fact that the Air Force had hired another retired general, W. W. White, vice president of Esso, to negotiate oil and gasoline agreements for the Air Force.

On Feb. 26, 1954, one year and four months before the investigation by the House Armed Services committee, this column revealed that Brig. Gen. White had been hired by the Air Force for the very dubious job of negotiating a $30,000,000 agreement to sell aviation gas to the Air Force overseas.

This, according to the column of Feb. 26, '54, "constitutes about two-thirds of all aviation gas that will be used by the Air Force overseas during the current fiscal year."

"White is not giving up his holdings in Esso as Secretary of Defense Wilson did in General Motors." This column reported. "As an ex-vice president of Esso, he will walk around to the other side of the table and purchase gasoline for the Air Force."

Congressmen investigating White's analogous position on July 7, 1955, elicited the fact that he is still drawing pay from the Esso Export Corporation while working for the Air Force.

Ladies And Their Lobes

Ladies — do you admire cauliflower ears? If you don't, watch the weight of your earrings? Otherwise, you may grow cauliflower ears. Doctors are watching for the first signs of split ear lobes in women. An alert has gone out to the medical profession because the suspicion is that because women are wearing heavier and heavier earrings, the strain on their ear lobes due to the powerful clip which fastens the earrings may weaken the body cells and cause the ear lobes to split.

Fashion is fashion and as long as earrings are a part of feminine ornament, the ladies will adorn their ears. There is apparently little danger in a moderate sized earring or very light weight ones, if they are not worn all day long.

So ladies, if you do not wish to compete with the cauliflower ears of the prize fighters, watch the weight of your earrings.

Soviet Hospitality

It is encouraging to note the increased number of newspaper correspondents in Moscow. Not since 1947 have there been as many foreign newsmen in that country. At the moment there are at least 36 foreign representatives of newspapers, news agencies, and radio networks, including resident correspondents and visitors.

This line up of resident correspondents in the Soviet Union includes the following: The Associated Press, two; The United Press, one; International News Service, one; Agence France-Presse, two; Reuters (English) two; Corriere della Serra di Milan, one; The New York Times, one; and Tanjung (News Agency of Yugoslavia) plus some correspondents from foreign communist papers.

There will be several junkets of journalists touring Europe this summer who will also visit the Soviet Union. Unusual facilities have been offered to newsmen from West Germany and to the Indian correspondents who travelled with Mr. Nehru.

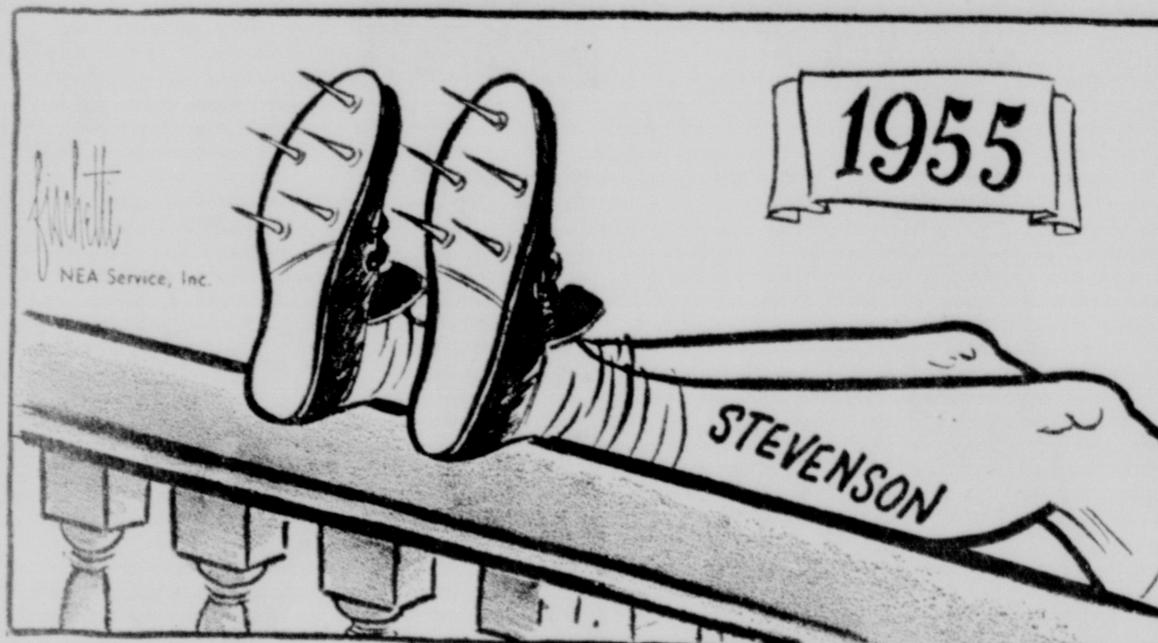

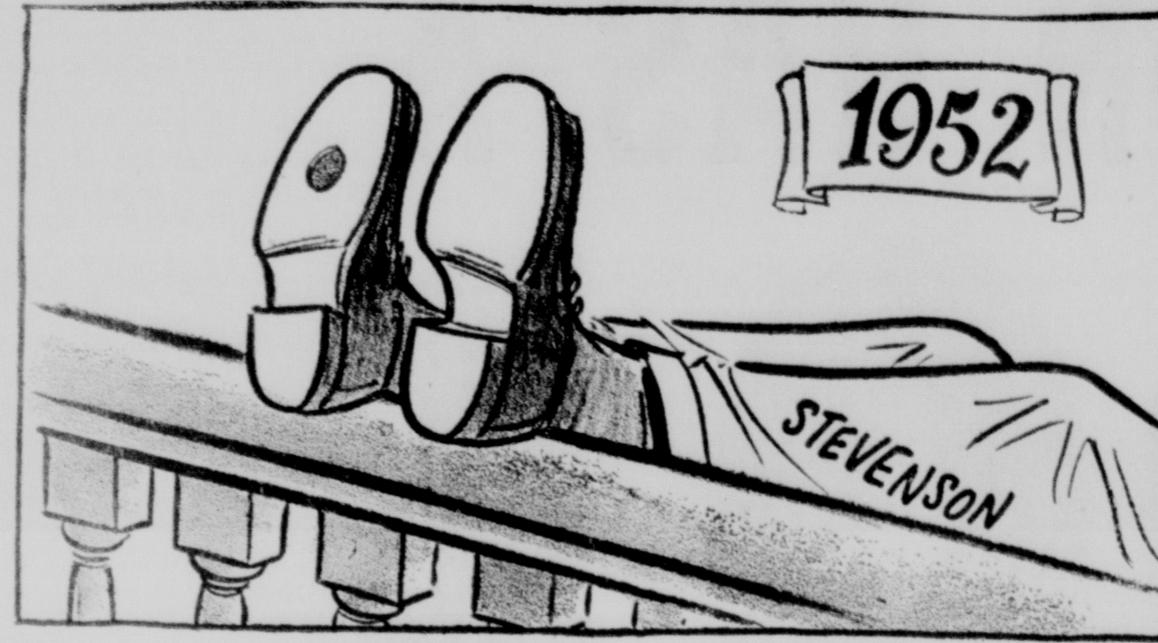

All of this looks good, at least on the surface. Is it possible that the Iron Curtain is being raised little by little?

Thought for Today

And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place; and hear thou in Heaven thy dwelling place; and when thou hearest, forgive.—I Kings 8:30.

God forgives — forgives not capriciously, but with wise definite, Divine pre-arrangement; forgives universally, on the ground of an atonement and on the condition of repentance and faith.—Storrs.

GOP Pushes Revision of Harmless Plank

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — In their 1952 campaign platform the Republicans had two paragraphs on the Russian satellites: one full of dynamite, which made good political propaganda at the time, and the other harmless.

After their election they backed off from the dynamite-laden paragraph. They had failed to carry through on it. Three years later they are pushing for a revised version of the harmless one, with Democrats' help.

The explosive paragraph said the Republican would "repudiate" all wartime "secret understandings" with the Russians which aid "Communist enslavement."

The other said: "It will be made clear, on the highest authority of the President and Congress, that tried to get the Senate to pass a United States policy . . . looks happily forward to the genuine independence of those captive peoples."

This is what happened:

President Eisenhower, after taking office in 1953, said he knew of no agreements still secret in the sense of not being known. If this country started repudiating wartime agreements, the Russians might retaliate by canceling some which this country didn't want repudiated—for example, the division of Berlin between West and East.

So, instead of repudiating anything, Eisenhower suggested that Congress, then run by his Republicans, adopt a resolution which would say: ". . . The United States rejects any interpretation . . . of agreements . . . which have been perverted to bring about the subjugation of free peoples . . ."

That was soothing enough to the Democrats, who argued the wartime agreements would have been all right if the Russians hadn't deceitfully used them to entrap the Central European countries.

Eisenhower had to consider the Democrats' feelings too. The Republicans had control of Congress only by a hair. But Eisenhower's proposal was too weak to suit some Republicans. The whole thing was shelved.

Last month, as Eisenhower prepared to meet the Russians at Geneva, Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.)

Car Dealers Are Complaining Manufacturers Overload 'Em

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty
Democrat-Capital
Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Missouri automobile dealers are complaining to their Congressmen that automobile manufacturers are forcing them to take more cars than they can sell.

But can Congress do anything about such things as "phantom freight" charges from Detroit to point of sale when cars are not made in Detroit or about illegal auto "bootlegging" to the used-car dealer of those extra new cars not wanted by the new-car dealer?

Three remedies have been proposed in bills now being studied by a House Interstate and Foreign Commerce subcommittee headed by Democrat Congressman Arthur G. Klein of New York.

1. Outlaw the "phantom freight" charges.

2. Make auto "bootlegging" illegal.

3. Set up exclusive territorial agreements between auto manufacturer and dealers.

General Motors, Chrysler and Ford have warned dealers against bootlegging. But Congressman Shepard J. Crumpacker (R-Ind.) charges, "Auto manufacturers could bring bootlegging to an end if they would stop forcing cars on dealers."

As to the third remedy, one committee member, John Bennett (R-Mich.) fears the consumer would not be so good for the automobile.

Meantime, more and more cars are being produced. 44.7 percent more than of a comparable period in 1954. People are buying cars at a fast pace but stocks of both old and used cars are at near-record high.

The report from the subcommittee is expected to be completed for consideration by the full committee before adjournment.

Helicopter Is Wrecked As Crash Occurs

NEW YORK (AP) — A helicopter crashed and burst into flames yesterday while taking off from the 17th-floor heliport of the Port of New York Authority Building in downtown Manhattan.

The pilot and the only passenger were injured as they tumbled out of the burning craft seconds after it crashed on the 16th floor. It then dropped to a narrow setback of the 15th floor.

Port Authority officials said the pilot apparently forgot to unplug a 30-foot "booster" cable, often used to energize the starter. As the craft rose from the heliport, the cable became taut and jerked the machine down over the side of the building.

Debris and burning gasoline showered the traffic-jammed street below, but there were no injuries there.

Port Authority employees and firemen quickly quenched the smoldering skeleton of the craft as it hung precariously on the narrow ledge above 9th Avenue near 16th Street.

The pilot, Marcel O. Chevalier, 30, suffered a concussion and scalp laceration. He was reported in fair condition.

The passenger, Arthur Truss, 33, a Port Authority photographer, suffered a concussion, fractures and multiple abrasions. His condition was listed as critical.

The heliport is a table-like structure 10 feet above the 16th floor of the building.

Mechanic Requested To De-Snake an Auto

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Press Gragg, an auto mechanic for 33 years, has taken a lot of bugs out of cars, but never a snake—that is until yesterday.

Harold Brown brought his car to Gragg "to get the snake out."

Gragg tackled the job with a plate of milk and a heat lamp after other mechanics had pulled the seats out of the car without snaring the reptile.

Gragg grabbed the five-foot gopher snake with his hands, when it came out from behind the dash board to sip the milk. He dumped it into a cardboard box to be returned to Brown.

"It's Mr. Brown's car and Mr. Brown's snake," he said.

Fake French Paintings Catch Up With Seller Dealing In Hollywood

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Hollywood art lovers, up to their eyebrows in French impressionists were given some trembling moments by a jury which convicted a prominent auctioneer of falsely advertising five paintings as the work of celebrated French artists.

Roy J. Goldenberg was found guilty yesterday of representing as authentic five paintings attributed to Edouard Manet, Edgar Degas, Raoul Dufy and Rosa Bonheur. The jury, weighing four days of expert testimony, concluded they were fakes.

The traffic in French art has been booming in and around the movie colony since World War II, with paintings bringing up to $100,000.

The jury of six men and six women found that Goldenberg made misleading statements in newspaper and catalogue advertising, but held that he did not make the statements with deliberate intent.

Sell Soft Drinks to Donate Profits for Cerebral Palsy

Because one neighborhood group of children in the vicinity of Second and Prospect Streets have soft hearts and willing hands, United Cerebral Palsy of Pettis County, Inc., has an additional $4.69 in its treasury this week.

Whereas a good many enterprising youngsters spend the summer thinking up new ways to secure spending money to go swimming, to see their favorite movies, or to just have pocket money for those summer delicacies such as ice cream, candy and soft drinks, the ingenuities of the children near Prospect and Second were channeled elsewhere. They have been planning all summer to help children less fortunate than they. A pop stand during the heat of the summer seemed to be the answer.

The $4.69 was turned over to UCP without any fanfare Wednesday, and the partnership was dissolved until a couple of hot days next summer.

Linda and Bobby Pearson, children of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pearson, 230 South Prospect; Ledren of Mr. and Mrs. George Freese, 920 West Second Street; and Jackie and Vickie Dunham, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dunham, 120 South Prospect, all combined their efforts in a business venture for UCP.

The weather was on their side when they opened for business last Monday, the stand being particularly inviting to those youngsters going to and from the swimming pool and ball parks. With the parents of the children cooperating by donating the merchandise, the two-day operation would have made most Sedalia businessmen green with envy—a 100 per cent net profit.

"A's" Attend Party—

Boudreau And Players Announce Hopes Of Ending In Top League

If They Play .500 Baseball With Leaders

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — The Kansas City Athletics, consigned by the experts in almost all pre-season polls to the American League cellar again, are talking among themselves about a first division berth.

Manager Lou Boudreau let that surprise out of the bag at a private dinner party given the ball club last night.

The A's who finished 30 games out of first place last year, now have a firm hold of sixth place, 18 games behind the league leading New York Yankees and 5½ back of fifth place Detroit.

For Kansas City fans, getting their first taste of major league baseball, that in itself is highly satisfactory. Most of them would have been willing to settle for seventh place.

But Boudreau, who up until now had been conservative in discussing the erstwhile Philadelphia failures, is hitting a new note.

Introduced at the banquet given by meat packer Art Maueras—Lou bowed gracefully past that suggestion.

"No one man, or even six or eight men can make a ball team if they (the players) don't want to play," he said. "I just hope the ball bounces right and I can guess right whenever I have to call for somebody from the bullpen."

Then Boudreau suggested the fans look at the schedule from here on out. It shows 32 ball games for the A's against New York, Cleveland, Chicago and Boston—the current first division family.

"If we can play .500 ball against four ball clubs—we are going to have to improve and we are going to have to win those one run games—you'll see this club close to you'll see this club close to top. Several members of the team during the evening spoke privately along the same lines.

However, such hopes look like an impossible order. During the first half of the season the A's won-lost record against the first division clubs was New York 2-8, Cleveland 3-10, Chicago 4-6 and Boston 4-8. That's not even .300 baseball.

Boudreau's big "if" will get its test soon.

Johnny Parsons Tells Lions Of Racing Tales And Events

Johnny Parsons well-known racing driver of the Big '500' Indianapolis Speedway, was the speaker at the Sedalia Lions Club noon-day meeting Wednesday. Parsons is a one time winner of the '500' and has placed second in the annual Memorial Day racing event twice, gave an account of his experience and answered questions regarding big time automobile racing.

Parsons reviewed the racing of the present and told of the events of years gone by. He told of the event when he was the winner, of those where he placed and of his participation this year. "I was started off in 31st place, worked myself up to 10th position when I had to stop for refueling and tire changes. I took off and was back in 21st place and started the grind of going up among the top positions when the motor went out and I had to drop from the race at the 300 mark, and was in 10th position at the time," he said.

He told of the constructions of most of the present big car racers, and referred to the Indianapolis racing vehicles as being a "one day racer" built especially for the Indianapolis track. Many of these cars are raced but that one day while a few others are capable of being used on mile dirt tracks and some half mile ovals.

Parsons when asked what the principal racing motor for such cars was and he said "the Offenhauser is the Daddy of them all." Continuing, he said: "There are other motors that are good but the majority of the racing car builders prefer the Offenhauser." In answering questions he told of the fuel used, tires and their construction, how the drivers under go physical examinations, and their trial runs on the track and qualification of their automobiles in these trials runs. "You have to be in pretty good shape to make the race which covers 300 miles in less than four hours," he remarked.

Parsons also called attention to the big car racing to be held at the half mile track located at 91st and Leavenworth Road in Wyanotte, Kan., on Friday night in which he with Bob Schweikert, the CHARUTE, Kan. (AP)—A comely 16-year-old high school girl who hopes to become a medical technician is wasting little time passing the acid test as a golfer.

She's Jean Ashley, 5 foot 8 inch, brown-eyed and brown haired lass who has been somewhat of a sensation the past month in winning the Kansas State Amateur championship and the recent Women's Invitational tournament at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Jean's been playing golf — and winning golf—since she was 12. She says she feels with "many more lessons and much more practice" she can become a "real good" golfer.

Her father, Dr. G. L. (Ed) Ashley, of Chanute, a pretty fair club shooter, was Jean's first teacher, but she's had considerable instruction from Mike Murra, veteran pro at Wichita Country Club who has tutored many of Kansas' better players the past 20 years.

"Mr. Murra has helped me a lot," Jean confided. "I've been taking lessons on and off for two years."

Murra described the Chanute miss as one of the "most promising young golfers I've seen in some time."

"Jean has real ability," Murra said. "She studies the game, works hard at it and has a good competitive spirit."

Jean won her first "big one" as a ninth grader in 1952 when she was champion of the Southwestern Kansas tournament at Pittsburg, Kan. She won the Chanute Country Club title in 1953 and since that time has been knocking off invitational banners in this section.

Jean is rightfully proud of her victory at Colorado Springs where she beat Mrs. Russell Mann, veteran Nebraska State Amateur champion from Omaha, 10 and 9.

The margin of victory bettered the previous record for that tournament held jointly by pros Betsy Rawls and Betty MacKinnon.

Miss Ashley, who will graduate from Chanute high next spring, plans to enroll at the University of Kansas in the fall of 1956. There she'd like to study to become a technician or "even a doctor."

Her next golf competition will come in the Western Junior Tournament at Lake Geneva, Wis., Aug. 5-9. She'll get ready for it by practicing every day, just like she's been doing the past four years.

of a champion if little else. He was decked by a short right for the eight count in the second round.

But he weathered Andrews' savage left hooks and right uppercuts and fought back. He earned the decision from Referee Frank Sikora, 94-91, and Judge Frank McAdams, 96-95. Judge James McManus gave it to the 25-year-old ex-paratrooper from Buffalo, N. Y. 95-99.

He proved he still has the heart

Actress Mad At Clothing Investigation

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lana Turner is just as indignant about the case of the painted panties as Sen. Keauver is.

Recently the Tennessee Democrat was here to investigate the effect of movies on juvenile delinquency. The hearings went far and one day the matter of movie ads was brought up.

Several exhibits were offered, including one featuring Lana's frame in "The Prodigal." A movie ad censor testified that he had ordered pants painted in an effort to make the picture seem less racy.

"The picture was much worse afterward than it was before," exclaimed Lana when the matter was brought up. "Those pants looked awful. Such a drab green color. Awful!"

She defended the costume, which appeared to expose her hips to a remarkable degree. Actually she wore flesh colored covering underneath the beads.

"I was well concealed," she remarked. "There was nothing pornographic about it at all. There wasn't even any cleavage. It was mild compared to some movie ads."

The reason it was criticized was because the pose had never been done before. It was new, so people thought it was immoral."

Keauver could find nothing to complain about in Lana's costumes for her current epic, "Diane." When viewed, she was covered from neck to toe in a suede riding dress of old France. She was riding a horse—sidesaddle yet—in a foxhunt in the film. She'd like to get out of the costumes and into a smart comedy, but so far her studio has not come up with one for her.

To Erase Color Line

DALLAS (AP)—The Dallas School Board says it is studying "fair and equitable methods" of desegregating public schools but will be "impatient with any undue pressure."

Board President Dr. Edwin L. Rippy read a two-page statement outlining the problems of erasing color lines in public schools at a board meeting last night.

Kenneth Holbert, secretary of the local chapter of the National Assn. for Advancement of Colored People, told the board the NAACP will be "impatient and disturbed by any prolonged delay."

Suzan Ball In Recovery Try From Cancer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Suzan Ball, a resolute young actress who came back to a film career and marriage after losing her right leg to cancer, is waging a fresh battle against the disease today.

The City of Hope medical center at nearby Duarte disclosed that the pretty blonde, 21, has been patient there since July 5. Her condition is serious.

Little more than two years ago Suzan fell on a dance floor. She had just been signed to a movie contract. Nobody thought the injury would keep her from work for long. But she had trouble with her leg, and doctors now think she aggravated a dormant condition.

The following November she fell again, in the kitchen of her home. This time the injury to the leg did not respond to treatment. A bone graft was tried, but without positive result.

Suzan learned soon afterward that she would probably lose the leg. But she never lost her courage.

In 1953 she and actor Richard Long became engaged. Suzan's ailment however, interrupted her marriage plans as well as her career. On Jan. 13, 1954, her right leg was removed.

She bounced back to seeming health—in a few weeks she was planning her marriage again, and the resumption of her film work. In a few more weeks she was learning to walk with an artificial leg.

The postponed wedding took place in Santa Barbara April 12, 1954. And Suzan walked up the aisle, just as she had said she would.

"I'm going to show the world I can walk," she announced during rehearsals for a TV play in which her husband also appeared. During much of the action she was shown in a wheel chair. But at the play's end she walked.

Walker has practiced law in Roanoke since 1950. He was president of the Virginia State Bar Association, 1947-48; is a member of the American Bar Association and the American Law Institute and a director of the American Judicature Society.

Broom Doesn't Work So Lady Shoots Bear

LA VETA, COLO. (AP)—A summer resident at Cuchuras Camps, southwest of here, found that a broom is a poor substitute for a gun when it comes to dealing with a bear.

Mamie Burns said she stepped from her cabinet yesterday and found a young bear just outside the door. She seized a broom to protect herself, but the bear, instead of heading for the woods, charged her.

She dropped the broom and grabbed a .22-caliber rifle. Her first two shots missed but the third—the last left in the weapon—killed the bear.

Showers said the farmhand claimed, however, that he did not kill her.

He told officers he hitchhiked here from Sioux City.

Officers questioned him late into the night on his story, which they described as incoherent in parts.

Stops to Rest In Jail

LITCHFIELD, Ill. (AP)—David W. Crockett, 26, of Lake City, Ark., asked Police Chief Ted Rogers if he could rest for a few hours in the city jail. After a little nap, Davy told Rogers he was going to continue his hike northward. He was looking for a job.

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Although cut and bruised in an auto accident, Charles Padgett was hurt worst in the wallet. The mishap occurred several miles outside Lexington. When the Mount Clemens, Mich., motorist reached for his wallet after arriving here, it was gone. And the $2,611 in it are still missing. Padgett has no idea how he lost the wallet.

Sues His Officer

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—An airman second class has filed suit in District Court for $10,000, accusing a lieutenant colonel of slandering him. John F. Crogman claims Lt. Col. Walter Callahan damaged his reputation by calling him lazy in a statement spoken in the presence of another airman, Miles Miller. All are stationed at nearby Tinker Air Force Base.

Sound Medical Advice—

Tell Off The Boss If You Want to Avoid Heart Attack

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Want to avoid a heart attack because of worry at work? Then tell off your boss—tactfully.

Or as Dr. David Gelfand puts it: "Get it off your chest. Blow your stack."

Dr. Gelfand has a unique job. He heads the cardiac work evaluation unit at Philadelphia General Hospital under the sponsorship of the Heart Assn. of Southeastern Pennsylvania and in 3½ years of careful study has examined 438 men and women.

Nearly all of the patients are referred to the unit by industries anxious to determine the heart victim's capacity for work—whether he be tired businessman or frustrated ditchdigger.

Dr. Gelfand said 46 per cent of the patients—each examined by a cardiologist, a vocational counselor, a medical social worker and a psychiatrist—have a psychological factor which "is a basic in-sideration that is not expressed goes into the cardiovascular system," he said, "where it tightens the blood vessels. Continued insult to blood vessel tissues results in permanent hypertension."

Bingo—a heart attack. Dr. Gelfand said the group's findings on the emotional background of heart disease are the most significant—particularly to industry.

"When the personality pattern is dominated by an inhibition of expression," he said, "we advise the patients to go back to their jobs, but not just sit there quietly in the corner."

"We want them to go back and blow their stacks—or at least, talk it over with their bosses."

"Big business today sometimes provides for such conferences, but too few employees take advantage of them. Young workers fall into a groove—which hopefully leads up to higher stations and salaries—and they're afraid to say a word."

Dr. Gelfand said of 360 workers his unit examined 92 per cent went back to full-time employment—and 23 per cent of these needed no restrictions. Only 3 per cent were advised not to work at all.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—A beverage industry official estimates 78 million gallons of intoxicating liquor are produced by illegal stills in the United States each year.

The figure came from Thomas J. Donovan, executive director of Licensed Beverage Industries, Inc., who addressed the National Licensed Beverage Assn. here yesterday.

Government agents seized 22,913 illicit stills last year, he said, "and it is estimated that for every moonshine still seized, there is another that is not found."

Senate Resolution Favors Freedom Of Subject State

WASHINGTON (AP) — Overwhelming approval was assured today for a resolution expressing Senate hopes that subject states "shall again enjoy the right of self-determination."

The resolution, backed by Senate leaders of both parties, does not name the Soviet Union or communism and makes no reference to the Big Four summit talks opening at Geneva Monday.

President Eisenhower leaves for Geneva tomorrow night, accompanied by the First Lady and a party of advisers, after addressing the nation by radio and television on his views of the summit talks.

Both he and Secretary of State Dulles have repeatedly indicated they will press Russia to ease up its grip on the European satellites. The Senate resolution on that subject and approved unanimously yesterday by the Foreign Relations Committee, voices Senate hope that "the peoples who have been subjected to the captivity of alien despotisms shall again enjoy the right of self-determination within a framework which will sustain peace." The resolution does not require House action and is not binding on anyone.

Big Number At Baptist Youth Camp

One hundred seventy boys and girls registered for the Saline County Young People's Camp sponsored by the Saline County Baptist WMU held June 21 to July 1 at Camp Viola, located a quarter mile north of Marshall Junction. The Rev. Don Baker, pastor of the New Salem Baptist church, served as general camp director. The 67 boys attended the first week of camp with the Rev. James Hackney, Slater, serving as their director. The Rev. Harold Hosler, Gilliam, was head counselor for the first week. Willis Griffin, State Royal Ambassador Secretary, Jef-gram of work for the boys, as did several other pastors and laymen in the county.

One hundred three girls were present for the second week of camp. Mrs. Clay Killion, Jr., of the New Salem Church, served as head counselor for the girls. She was assisted by Miss Norma Jean Baker of the State WMU office in Jefferson City as well as by several other women who served as teachers and counselors.

Mrs. Leonard Erickson, Sweet Springs, served as kitchen and dining room supervisor and was ably assisted each day by a different group of women from the churches in the county who prepared and served the food. Dr. Anna McNeish, Marshall Junction, served as camp doctor.

The campers enjoyed swimming at the pool in Marshall.

An honor system created a great deal of interest both weeks. Many were chosen honor campers with two Star Campers winning a free trip to the State R. A. and G. A. Camp at Hollister Hill. Ray Bohlen, Gilliam, and Sandra Roberts of the Missouri Baptist Childrens on their Forward Steps. Plans are already underway to enlarge the camp facilities to care for a larger camp next year.

A coronation service for the person City, assisted with the girls, directed by Mrs. B. E. Noyell, Slater, was presented the closing night of the camp. Seven girls were recognized who had completed work during the week.

First Ordinance 25 Years Old--

Engineers Summarize Zone Change Proposal

Two public hearings on the proposed revision of the Sedalia zoning ordinance as recommended by Hare and Hare, planning engineers of Kansas City, will be held Friday by the Citizens Advisory Planning and Zoning Committee. The first meeting will be held at 2 p.m., and the other at 7:30 p.m. Attending both will be Hubert Hare, senior member of the planning firm. The hearings will be under the direction of S. J. Timborous, chairman of the committee.

The map printed at the right was prepared by Hare and Hare and shows the proposed new zones. Following is a summary of the proposed changes, as submitted by the planning engineers:

Sedalia's first zoning ordinance was passed in 1930. Important progress has been made in the field of zoning since that time, which makes the revising of the present ordinance necessary if it is to be administered with the maximum effectiveness.

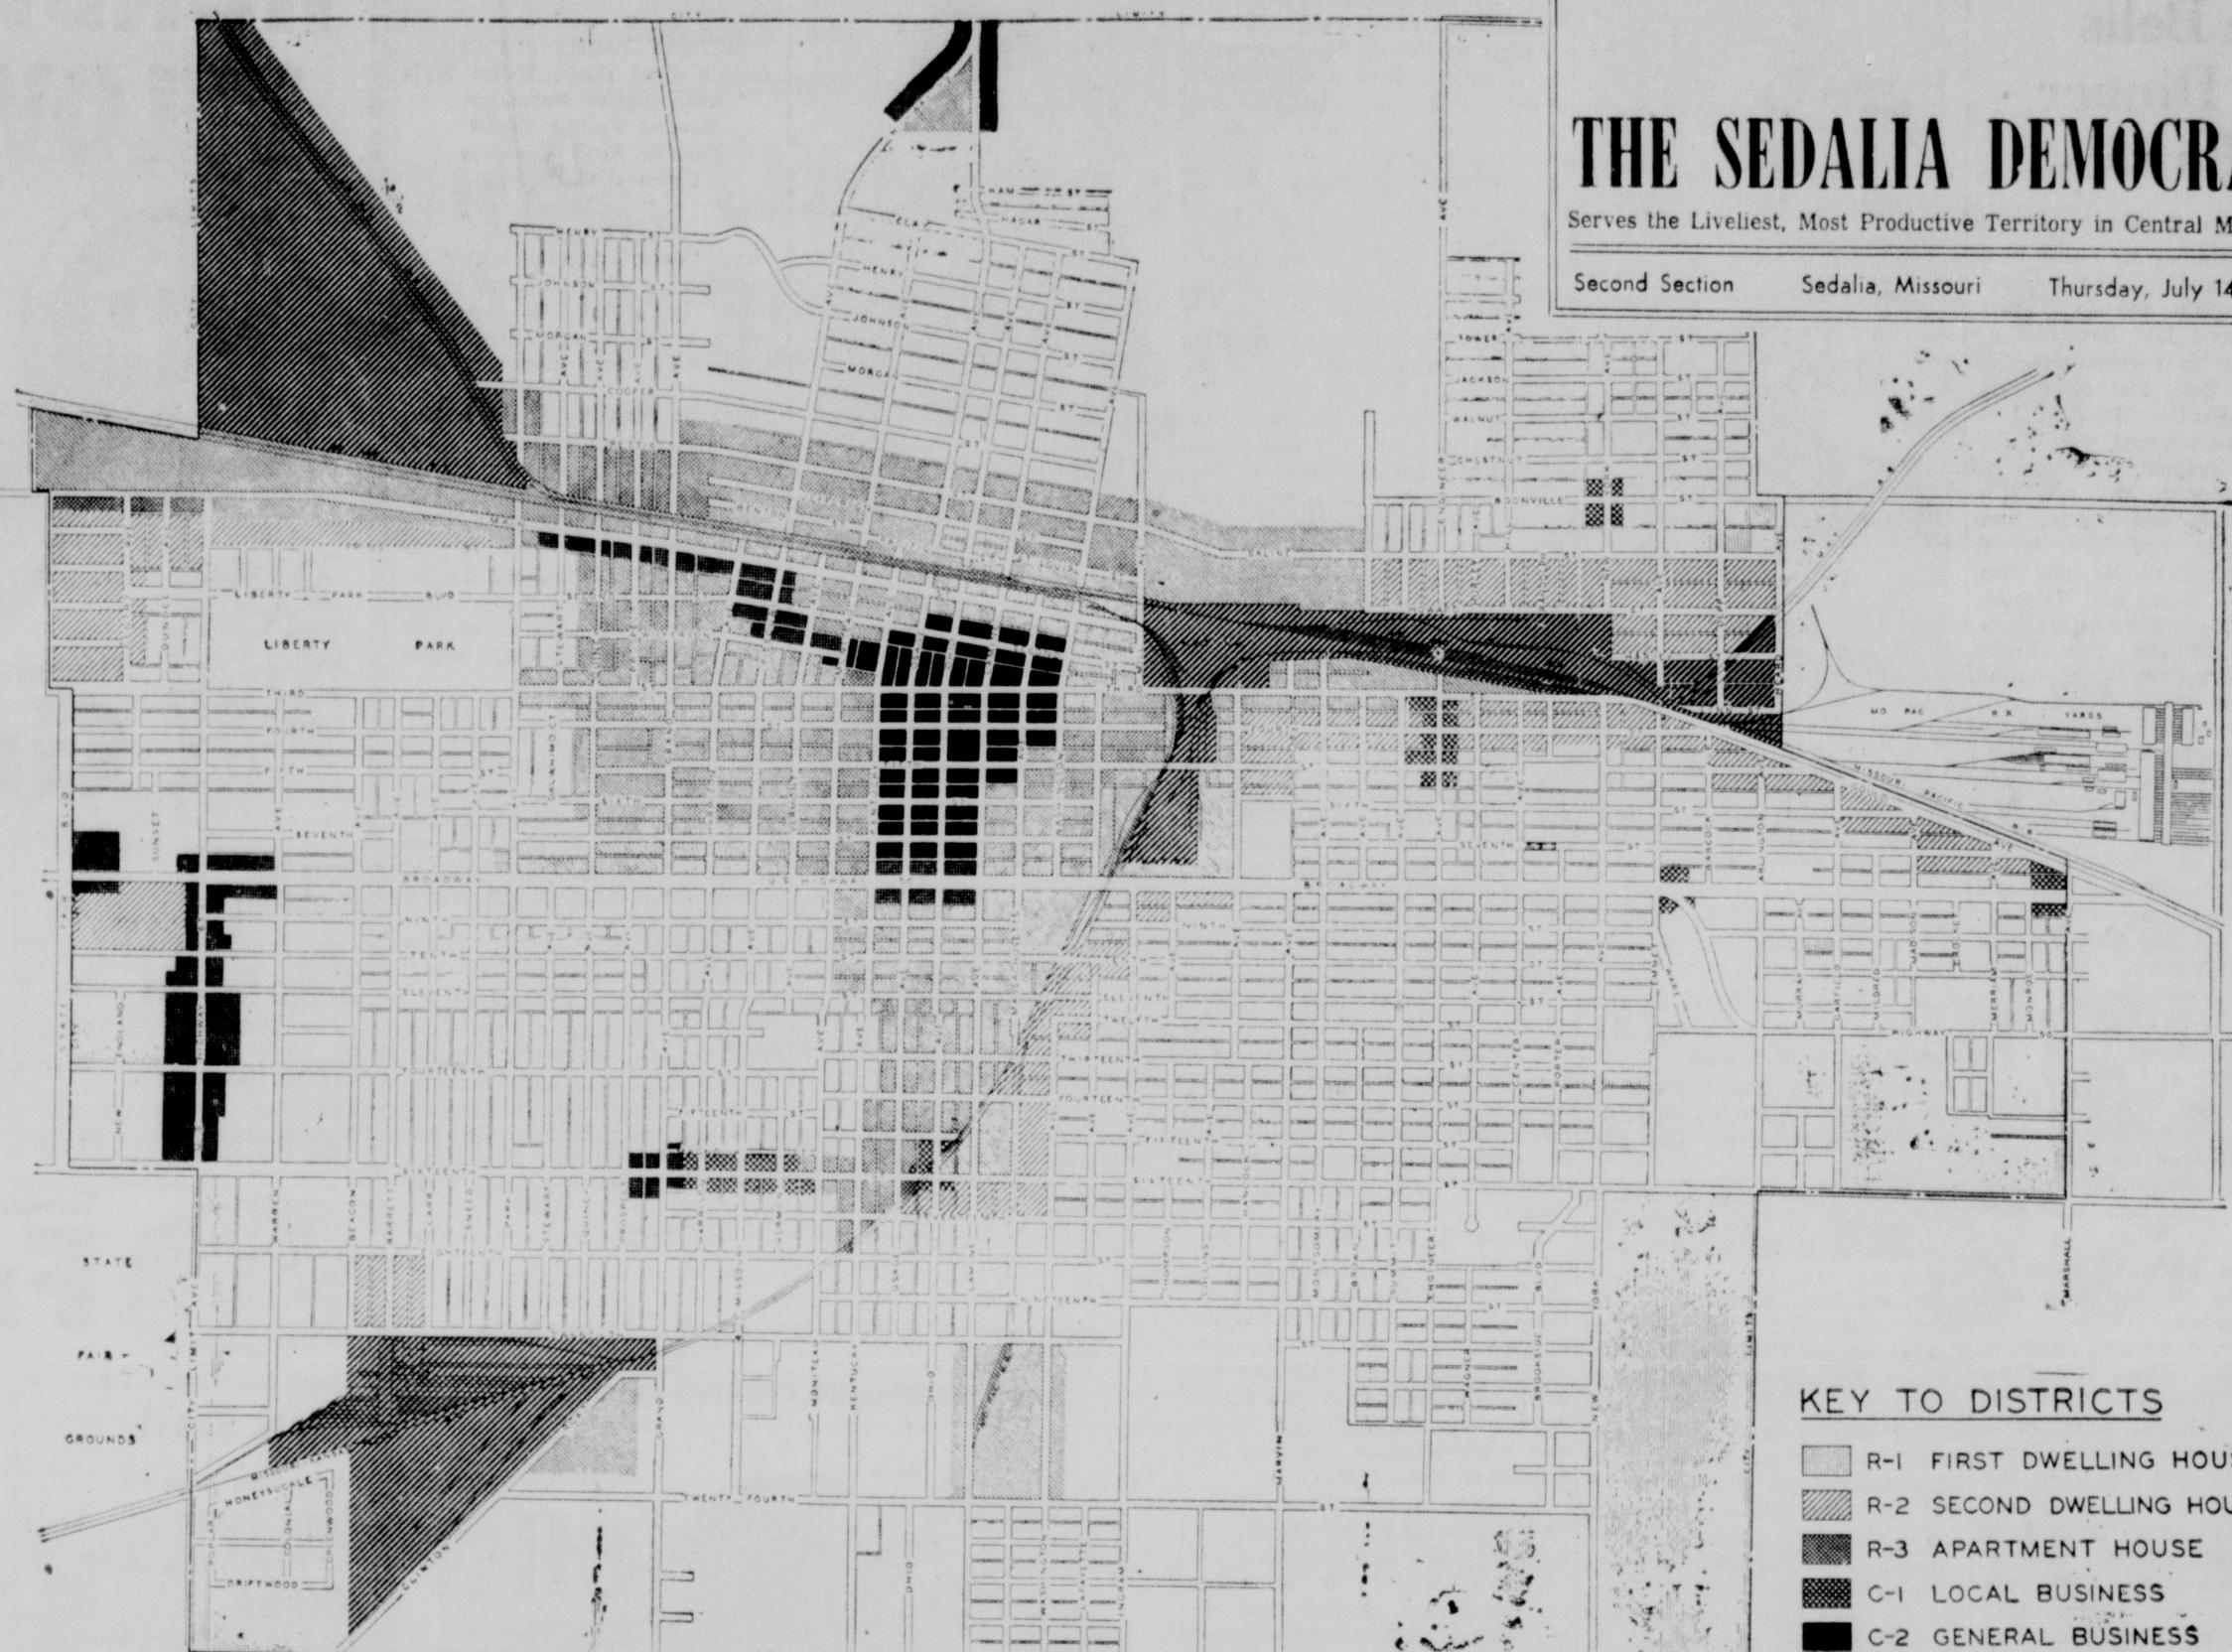

Changes and additions which are recommended in the proposed new ordinance are too numerous to mention in detail, but the important ones are as follows:

1. Instead of the four residence districts, three are proposed; Single Family; Two Family; and Apartment. This is to simplify the regulations.

2. The four commercial and business districts were revised to include Local Business, General Business, and Planned Business. Highway Business includes all uses permitted in the General Business District, plus such uses as drive-in restaurants, farm machinery sales, and plumbing shops, which would be objectionable in the Central Business District. Greater open spaces and more off-street parking are required in the Highway Business District than in the Central Business District and the height of buildings in the Highway Business District is limited to 2½ stories. The Planned Business District is a recent innovation in zoning, requiring that a plan for a shopping center be submitted and approved by the Planning Commission as to location, size, traffic conditions, parking, etc., before an amendment to the zoning map authorizes such a district may be passed. All uses permitted in the General Business District are permitted in the Planned Business District except dwellings and certain public buildings. The advantage of such a district is that a principal changes in the Zoning District Map consist of changing several areas now zoned for business or industry to residential districts. More commercial or industrial zoning than can be used is detrimental to the orderly growth of the city, since home building is discouraged in such districts.

Zoning an area for business or industry does not insure its use (Continued on Page 10, Section 2)

Home Economist Dreams Up Menus

By Cecily Brownstone

Associated Press Food Editor
"Girls who study home economics at college have a fine chance of doing well both in business and in managing their own homes," says Carol Brock, hostess editor of a woman's magazine (Good Housekeeping).

Carol, a striking blonde with a merry disposition, likes her career-woman plus wife-and-mother role so well that she urges other young women to consider going into the home economics field.

"Sometimes I can't believe it's possible to have a job like mine and get paid for it!" Carol told me as she outlined part of her work—planning and running some of the daily luncheons for the magazine's editors and their guests. The guests may be a group of college seniors or, as they were recently, a couple from Mansfield, Ohio, who won one of the magazine's contests. They may be the Duke of Windsor or Margaret Truman. But nothing floors Carol. She fed the Duke a thoroughly American combination of chicken over rice with a canned cream-of-mushroom soup sauce (seasoned with onion and thyme) and he lapped it up. Miss Truman enjoyed a special ham dish and a Bavarian Pie with a Chocolate Coconut Crust.

Although Carol Brock had had no previous job experience before her present position, the fact that she did have college training in home economics opened the magazine's door to her. "What I lacked in experience, I made up in enthusiasm!" she laughingly confesses.

Carol's home economics subjects at college ranged through child psychology and family relations, kitchen planning, managing budget and food preparation.

"What other course could give you so much knowledge of and experience in homemaking?" asks Carol, who married about the time she graduated from college.

A course in work simplification has been a big help to Carol, too, in looking after her own home and family as well as in doing her job. She admits, however, that two big aids to work simplification at home are her husband and her mother. When they married, Carol's groom solemnly promised "to love, honor and do the dishes." Carol's mother takes care of the Brock baby when usual arrangements go amiss.

Plus work at the magazine offices every day, Carol cooks dinner every night. Over the weekend she takes entire care of her baby and her household. She and her husband are always at work on a do-it-yourself project such as making menus and two of her recipes follow:

SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPER
Corned Beef Hash, Buffet Style
Snap Beans Parmesan
Seeded French Bread
Almond Fruit Compote
Coconut Macaroons
Coffee

BUFFET STYLE
Ingredients: $\frac{1}{4}$ cup butter or margarine, 3 cans (1 pound each) corned beef hash, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup light cream, 16 deviled-egg halves (seasoned with curry powder), chili sauce.

Method: Melt butter in baking dish (12 by 8 by 2 inches) while preheating oven. Spread corned beef hash evenly over melted butter. Pour cream over hash. Bake in hot (400 degrees) oven 35 minutes. Arrange deviled-egg halves, filled side up, over hash. Heat chili sauce; pass chili sauce with corned beef hash and eggs. Makes 8 servings.

Note: The deviled-egg halves are not heated for this dish.

ALMOND FRUIT COMPOTE

Choose canned peaches, fresh raspberries and seedless grapes for this compote. Or else combine canned whole apricots, drained canned Bing cherries and frozen pineapple chunks. Chill the fruit and sprinkle with slivered toasted almonds just before serving.

ADVICE TO COLLEGE GIRLS

One word of advice from Carol Brock to any young girl who decides in favor of a home economics career. Take part in as many extra-curricular activities at college as you can; they'll give you invaluable experience for a later job.

It's Time For Summer BlackberriesBy Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor

BLACKBERRIES at their peak! Eat the luscious purple fruit "as is" with cream. Crush them with sugar and serve over vanilla ice cream. Layer them between layers of feathery white cake and top with whipped cream. Put them in a gelatin dessert for interesting texture. Try our old-fashioned delight — Blackberry Cobbler; you'll have a rich layer of the sweet berries with quick-cooking tapioca added to keep juices in their place, a delicious biscuit topping.

BLACKBERRY COBBLER

Ingredients: 3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca, 1 cup sugar, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon salt, $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon cinnamon, 4 cups blackberries, 1 cup water, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, 1 cup biscuit mix, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup light cream, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon.

Method: Mix tapioca, 1 cup sugar, salt, $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon cinnamon, blackberries and water in a saucepan. Cook and stir over moderate heat until mixture comes to a boil. Remove from heat; add lemon juice and butter. Pour into a baking dish (12 by 7 inches) and keep warm. Mix biscuit mix with 1 tablespoon sugar. Add cream and stir until soft dough is formed. Turn onto a lightly floured board or prepared pastry cloth and knead 10 times. Pat lightly to about $\frac{1}{4}$ -inch thickness. Cut out eight 2-inch biscuits. Place biscuits on top of blackberry mixture. Then mix 1 tablespoon sugar and 1 teaspoon cinnamon and sprinkle over biscuits. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven 30 minutes or until biscuits are baked through. Serve warm with cream. Makes 8 servings.

Note: $\frac{1}{4}$ cup milk and 2 tablespoons butter or margarine (melted) may be substituted for the light cream in making the biscuit topping.

HEARTY SANDWICHES

What to serve for lunch? How about canned corned beef, chopped, mixed with shredded cabbage and carrot for hearty sandwiches? Moisten the mixture with mayonnaise, or mayonnaise-type salad dressing, and add grated onion, salt and pepper to taste.

Appears That Flower Bill Won't Go Over

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lovers of the lily, lilac, dandelion and magnolia can relax—at least for a while. Spokesmen in both the Senate and House have said a bill to make the rose our national flower is withering on the vine. They said there isn't a chance it will pass in this session of Congress.

The reasons cited: Too many people prefer another flower and too much other legislation is deemed more important.

Chairman Jones (D-Mo.) of the House subcommittee that would consider the bill told a reporter:

"Frankly, I can't get very excited because we don't have a national flower."

"We discussed it informally on the subcommittee. One comment was: 'Why the rose? It's England's national flower. Why copy them?'"

"Anyway, I haven't heard any particular interest in the bill I don't have any interest at all."

On the other hand, the coauthors of the legislation—Rep. Frances P. Bolton (R-Ohio) and Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Maine)—say they have heard plenty of expressed enthusiasm.

Nationalist Students Unqualified to Study In Schools Abroad

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist Education Ministry has disqualified 351 Formosa high school students from accepting scholarships in colleges abroad. More than 300 had intended to go to U.S. schools.

The ministry said they had failed to pass special examinations.

The ministry said 235 other students with scholarships had passed the examinations.

Cape Girardeau Stops Polio Vaccine Shots

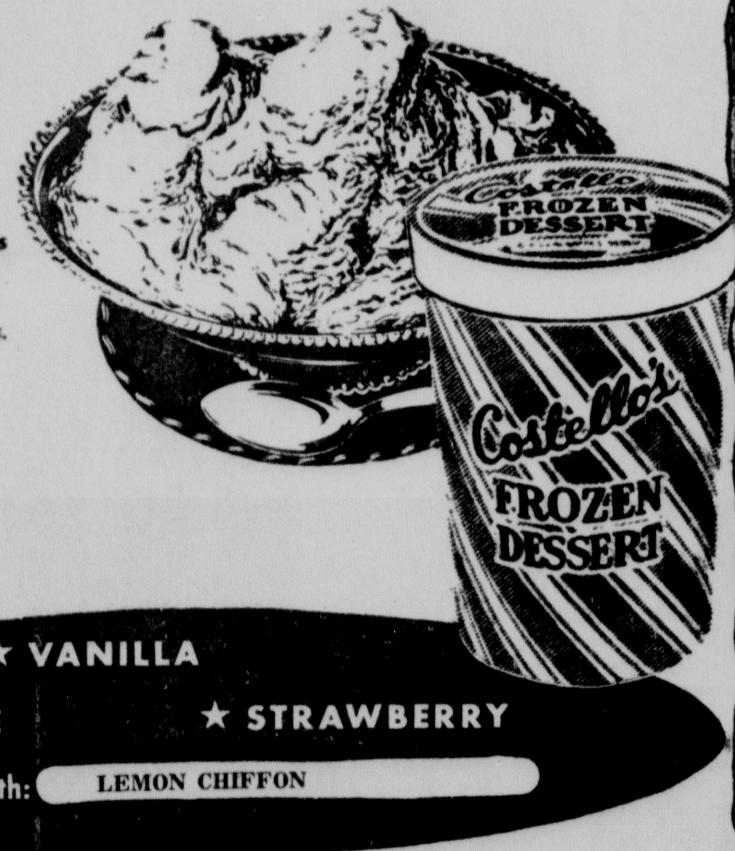

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. (AP)—All Salk polio vaccine shots were discontinued in Cape Girardeau County Tuesday "until such time as the situation has been clarified."

The County Medical Society took the action and a spokesman said members would not administer the vaccine either in the school inoculation program or to private patients as long as the policy remains in effect.

The society cited what it termed indecision in the nationwide program by congressmen and others and "ambiguity" in methods used in preparation of the vaccine.

Might Install Higher Price Supports Soon

WASHINGTON — Congress likely will reinstate 90 per cent supports for the basic crops early next year, Sen. Young (R-ND) has said, and in such a way that President Eisenhower will approve.

It was an administration bill that last year eliminated the mandatory parity supports and substituted a flexible scale of 82½ to 90 per cent for the basic crops.

Developing in the Senate Agriculture Committee for a program under which 90 per cent supports would be made available only to the producers of top quality basics—wheat, corn, cotton, rice and peanuts. Such a price support program probably would average out at about 85 per cent of parity or perhaps a little less," Young said in a newsletter to constituents.

Young said present law requires quality would receive a smaller support figure.

"Such a price support program would not those producing an inferior product receive the exact support figure for the country as a whole."

Wheat is being supported this year at 82½ per cent of parity, that price supports average out at the established national price support level. That does not mean that every farmer of a commodity in every section of the country

receives the exact support figure

Young said support now is developed in a well-seasoned

green limabean in a well-seasoned French dressing? When ready to serve the beans, drain them and mix in a little chopped onion;

serve with cold meat.

When the average score made on the standard Army classification test is taken at 100, the average of students who enter high school is 105 and of those entering college is 115.

Miss Hudspeth To Instruct Music Class

By Mrs. Verna Palmer

GREEN RIDGE — Miss Verlinda Hudspeth of Marshall, has been employed as music instructor in the Green Ridge High School for the coming school year. Miss Hudspeth attended William Jewel College at Liberty. Weekly practice sessions of the band members will be held on Wednesday night, beginning on July 6, at 8 p.m., throughout the summer.

William Alsopugh of near Windsor has resigned his position as veterans agriculture instructor at Green Ridge and has accepted a position in the high school at Marceline, where he will teach vocational agriculture. Mr. and Mrs. Alsopugh plan to move to Marceline about August 1. Mr. Alsopugh began teaching agriculture to veterans classes in June 1950.

Supt. and Mrs. Wayne Huddleston and children, Mike, Tamara and Kevin have moved to their new home at Tipton which has just recently been completed.

Mr. Huddleston has the position of Superintendent of Schools in Tipton this year.

Kay Heibner, Kansas City was a guest last week in the home of her father, William Heibner, Mrs. Heibner and children, Bill and Jean, in Green Ridge.

A family dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Templeton and daughters Sherry and April at Hickman Mills, on Sunday June 26. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wedleigh and three daughters, of Beaumont, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bullard and three children, of Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wedleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Smith and two sons, George Upton and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wedleigh, all of the Green Ridge Community.

Numerous pictures of the family group were taken during the day. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wedleigh and daughters left the following Monday to return to their home at Beaumont.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wedleigh, recently married, were the guests of honor at a six o'clock dinner at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wedleigh on Tuesday evening following the wedding on Sunday afternoon June 19. Others present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wedleigh and three daughters of Beaumont, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bullard and three children of Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Smith and two sons of Green Ridge and Sherry and April Templeton of Hickman Mills.

Sherry and April Templeton of Hickman Mills visited in the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wedleigh near Green Ridge while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Templeton attended Presbytery and Presbyterian meetings held at Columbia, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Palmer were hosts at a family dinner honoring Mrs. Palmer's mother, Mrs. T. B. Stone, Windsor, on her birthday anniversary, Sunday, July 3, at their home in Green Ridge. Others seated at the table with Mrs. Stone were, Mr. T. B. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Edmondson of Windsor, Donald Edmondson of Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Wilson and son, Charles of Chillicothe and the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Palmer were hosts at a six o'clock dinner the 4th of July, at their home in Green Ridge. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Leon Tucker of Oxnard, Calif., Mrs. Thomas Neal and daughter, of San Pedro, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Tucker of near Sedalia.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Anderson and Miss Eileen Anderson, Kansas City, spent several days in Green Ridge last week visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Eri Anderson and Mrs. Beulah Anderson at their homes here.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Kerstetter and son, Joel, Homewood, Ill., were recent weekend guests of Mrs. Etta Murphy and Miss Gayle Kenyear.

Miss Charlotte Baker of Peru, Ind., is here to settle the estate of her aunt, the late Miss Ty McDougal. She is staying at the McDougal home, 402 East Seventh Street, and is the last of her family. She expects to be here a month.

Miss Baker's father was Charles Baker and formerly city clerk in Sedalia. Her father was on the Detroit News about 20 years and she has followed in the newspaper work writing for the Michigan Milk Messenger under her byline.

Nehru Says Russians Are Like Americans

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Indian Prime Minister Nehru during his recent trip to the Soviet Union reportedly found the Russians "remarkably similar" to Americans.

Associates said Nehru, at a Cabinet reception last night welcoming him home, described the people of both major cold war opponents as "hospitable, friendly, mechanically minded, and liking to do things in a big way."

The Indian leader arrived back in New Delhi yesterday from a five-week tour of the Soviet Union and countries in Eastern and Western Europe. He visited the United States for three weeks in late 1949.

The ancient Romans used polished metal for mirrors.

Canadian Senator Dies From Heart Ailment

OTTAWA (AP) — Federal Sen. James H. King of Vancouver, former Speaker of the Canadian Senate, died early today in the Civic Hospital. He was 82.

The Senator entered the hospital June 20 for treatment of a heart condition. He subsequently contracted pneumonia.

His death brought to 23 the number of vacant seats in Canada's 102-member upper chamber. Senators are appointed for life by the Governor General on recommendation of the government.

King, a member of Canada's dominant Liberal party, was a physician in private life. He held posts in both provincial and Federal cabinets.

Completes Schooling

LA SPEZIA, Italy (AP)—Gaetano Barrilli today had the grade school diploma for which he began studying 80 years ago.

He quit school after completing the third grade. Last year he took up his studies again and never missed a session of the night school at nearby Castiglione Varano.

Now 86, Barrilli received his diploma and a letter of congratulations yesterday.

Ancients Knew RX

DETROIT (AP) — A University of Pennsylvania professor says that the oldest known medical prescriptions show the ancients had "a broad acquaintance with chemistry" and used material which required skills for preparation.

Dr. Samuel Noah Kramer, research professor of Assyriology at Pennsylvania, said the ancient prescriptions are on clay tablets which lay buried 4,000 years in the sands of Mesopotamia, and are written in Cuneiform script developed by ancient Sumerians.

Kramer told the American Association of the History of Medicine, the ancient doctor used potassium nitrate, table salt, turtle shell and ground snake skin in his prescriptions, as well as botanicals made from seeds, bark, roots or leaves of cassia, myrtle, thyme, willow, pear, fir, fig and date.

"The prescriptions," he added, "reflected the long-standing confidence of the ancients in odoriferous principles of botanical elements. Asafetida was included."

If a farmer furnishes the insecticide, most operators will fly it on for $1 to $1.25 an acre, depending upon the number of acres involved.

CHINCH BUGS: We are still finding a few scattered infestations of chinch bugs. A few spots in the Bootheel area have communities where infestations are somewhat general, but over most of the rest of the state, only a field here and there are involved.

If it is necessary to spray, put on applications exactly as directed.

The manner in which the field is sprayed will govern greatly the kill you get.

WEBWORMS: There are a lot of webworm moths flying in these alfalfa fields. Keep an eye out for the worms—they could start showing up at any time.

GREEN STRIPED MAPLE WORM: These worms that are virtually impossible to protect any individual field by spraying that field only. It is necessary to also spray those places around the field—usually pasture or waste land—where the hoppers are coming from.

There has been a little confusion about summer dosages of insecticides for hoppers. Our recommendations are as follows: aldrin, four ounces; heptachlor, four ounces; diazinon one and one-half ounces; toxaphene two pounds; or chlordane, one pound.

HOPPER CONTROL IN THE GARDEN: Several people have complained about the poor results they are getting from using poison-bran bait in the garden. Most such cases we have checked have been instances where folks have done a half job and expect full results.

There's no point in trying to kill all the hoppers in the garden unless a person is willing to spray out those areas around the garden where the hoppers are coming from. The above insecticides should not be used in the garden except in a poisoned bait. Such a bait will give fair results if the garden margin, and pastures around the garden, are cleaned out at the same time. If this is not done, don't waste your time putting out bait or anything else.

SPRAYING FOR GRASSHOPPERS: We have had a lot of inquiries about the costs of spraying grasshoppers by airplanes.

There is a little variance of price in different localities, but the bulk of the plane operators are charging $1.75 per acre to furnish the summer dosage of insecticide and fly on. On small patches, particularly if they might be hilly and bordered by timber or wires, the price may be about 25 cents an acre more.

Kan. Family Ends 2-Week Visiting Trip

By Mrs. Verna Palmer

GREEN RIDGE — Mrs. Dale Anderson and her two children from Pratt, Kansas, who have spent the past two weeks visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Rayburn and with Mrs. Beulah Anderson, returned to their home with Mr. Anderson who arrived on Saturday night in Green Ridge.

Mr. Anderson who is employed with the Consumer's Co-operative has been transferred to Columbia where they will move soon to reside.

Mrs. Vernon Arnett and daughters, Gwendolyn and Sandra and Morris Hinken drove to Nevada, Mo., on Monday where they were guests of Mrs. Arnett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Allen. Gwendolyn and Sandra remained for a week's visit in the home of their grandparents.

Mrs. Mattie Howe, Sedalia, and her daughter, Mrs. Frances Johannes, Kansas City, and Mrs. J. W. Boles, Nelson, were recent Sunday dinner guests of their son and brother, Alvin Howe at his home in Green Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brownfield and son, Duane were hosts at a family ice cream supper at their home on Main Street in Green Ridge on the evening of the Fourth of July.

Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ray and daughters, Judy and Connie, and sons, Kenne and Steve, Mr. and Mrs. Joe DeCuster and daughters, Carol and Melva Jo, R. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Ray and Robert Tucker, all of the Green Ridge community.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Campbell and children, Wayne and Ranae of near Green Ridge attended the homecoming of the Cole Camp High School on Saturday evening and Sunday. Mrs. Campbell was a member of the 1947 graduating class.

Other alumni from the Green Ridge community attending on Saturday evening were, Mrs. Jennings Donahoe and Milton Durrill.

The following relatives have been visiting the past week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Rayburn in Green Ridge: Mrs. Dale Anderson and children of Pratt, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Larry Johnson and three children, Council Bluffs, Ia., and Mr. and Mrs. George Donald Rayburn and daughters, Evansville, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Rayburn and daughters were also guests of Mrs. Rayburn's father, Mr. Nelson at his home at Brownington near Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Campbell and Lt. Col. Charles W. Calvert, son of Oliver Calvert, Columbia, was a recent visitor in the homes of relatives in Green Ridge. While here he was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Ream and Mrs. F. E. Helman, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Calvert and Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Calvert.

Lt. Col. Calvert has just completed a three-year term of service in the Pentagon Building in Washington, D. C. and is awaiting assignment to a three-year period in the European area. His two sons, Chuck and John Calvert accompanied him to Green Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Ogelive, Everton, Mo., have moved to Green Ridge to reside, where Mr. Ogelive has been employed as Superintendent of the Green Ridge Schools for the coming term.

Mrs. Ben Chancellor has returned to her home in Green Ridge following a few days spent at the home of her mother, Mrs. Nellie Crouch at Climax Springs. Mrs. Crouch has been critically ill but is showing improvement at the present time.

Recent Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Marshall, southwest of Green Ridge, were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Marshall and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Warren and sons, Jay and Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Miller and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Miller and family, all of Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Gardner of near Windsor.

Rev. and Mrs. Bobby Potter and children, Syracuse, were guests of Mrs. Potter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Carlson on Thursday, at their home southeast of town. Rev. Potter and family were enroute to Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Geigley, Kansas City, who spent the Fourth of July holidays on a fishing trip to the Lake of the Ozarks, were guests on Sunday evening of R. A. Bennett. Mrs. Geigley who had spent the past three weeks visiting her father, Mr. Bennett, returned to Kansas City that evening with her husband.

Earl B. Hinken who resides southwest of Green Ridge reported a high yield of oats on one and nine-tenths acres of Bonham oats. The yield on the plot was 185 bushels.

Mrs. Albert Upton and sons, George and Clyde and daughter, Alice and Mrs. Scena Paige of the Green Ridge community and Delaine Griffith, Smithton, were dinner guests on Monday recently of Mrs. Upton's sister, Mrs. Hoyt Holley, Mr. Holley and family at their home near Warsaw.

Mrs. Floyd Brownfield suffered burns on her right hand and arm while attempting to light a gas

Try to Keep Retail Prices At Low Level

NEW YORK (AP) — Rising steel prices and a strike-squeezed shortage of copper are putting many manufacturers in the middle today in dealing with their customers.

It's going to cost manufacturers more to turn out many consumer items. But the public is well aware that there are plenty of such items around and that good deals can be made with retailers in a highly competitive market. It's going to be hard to convince the public it must pay higher retail prices.

An example of that is at hand in a nonmetal field — gasoline. Higher wage scales and recent upgrading of quality to meet competition would normally lead to higher gasoline prices. But a leading Eastern oil company is lowering its wholesale price now—that is, in effect, more than absorbing the higher production costs.

The reason: An abundant supply of gasoline and keen rivalry for business among service stations has led to widespread price wars along the Eastern Seaboard. Oil companies have been giving discounts to dealers. Now this oil company hopes to straighten out the mess, stop the discounting, end the price wars by cutting its own wholesale price to service stations.

Makers of consumer goods using steel and copper are now studying what they can do in somewhat similar buyer's market. The basic steel price has gone up about $7.50 a ton. Wage scales are being boosted again. The cost of making the countless items that contain metal is going up.

But in a market where the old-line retailers are already battling with the newer discount houses, where auto dealers with large inventories are luring potential customers away from rivals by liberal trade-ins and other concessions, it's going to be hard to pass along to the consumer all of the higher cost of production.

The copper shortage is the most troublesome of immediate problems for many manufacturers. A sizable portion of this country's copper producing capacity is shut down by strikes. There was already a worldwide shortage of copper, which started last year with strikes here and abroad just as consumer demand for goods that use copper began to pick up notably.

The new strike, starting July 1, is rapidly drying up the already evaporating supplies.

Despite Bus Accident, Women Enjoy Visit to Kansas City

Although the 70 women from Pettis County Extension Clubs who were making a trip to Kansas City Tuesday got off to a bad start, Miss Opal O'Briant, home agent, believes they had a very profitable and enjoyable trip to Kansas City.

The trip was planned by the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, the Kansas City Chamber of Commerce and the Missouri-Pacific Bus Co. When Miss O'Briant found she had more than a busload, she went about to get two buses.

Plans were to reach Kansas City about 9:30 a.m. and to visit Mercy Hospital, WDAF, Armour's and the Betty Rose Garment Factory.

Due to a late start and then a highway accident which involved one of the buses the women arrived in Kansas City around noon. The first thing did was go to Putsch's Cafeteria for lunch.

There wouldn't be time to visit all the places planned so the women chose the one place they were most interested in, Mercy Hospital. They wanted to see the hospital to which they send money and other things, from time to time and has meant so much to children of Pettis County who have needed medical care, treatment or surgery.

Swopes Have Dinner Party For Visitors

By Mrs. Clarence DeHaven

LAMONTE — Mr. and Mrs. George Swope entertained with a dinner Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Swope, Mrs. Bessie Rohr, Miss Dorothy Rohr, all from Fayette, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Swope, Mrs. Will Rodgers and Miss Mildred Rodgers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morrison, McAllen, Tex., has been visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moore and other friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Wolfe, Clinton, spent the weekend here with Mrs. Alice Landis and Mrs. Mollie Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Meek of Lawrence, Kan., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cole and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Hintz and baby, Joplin, spent the weekend with his uncle Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schenk.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Burke and family, Springfield, spent the weekend with his parents Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Burke.

Mrs. Virgil Hansbrough and Mrs. Alice Blakely spent Tuesday with Mrs. Alice Blakely in Sweet Springs.

Mrs. Emma D. Kerby is in Lees Summit with her daughter, Mrs. Maurine Kelly, who has been returned home from a hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burke of Sedalia spent Wednesday with his mother, Mrs. E. P. Burke.

Mrs. Cassie Smith returned Wednesday from a two-weeks vacation in Eldon and at the Lake of the Ozarks.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Maynard had as weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hodges and Mr. Johnny Hodges from Adrian, Mo. and Mrs. Charles Lee Hodges came Sunday night and will stay as Mr. Hodges has a job with the pipeline.

Douglas Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Walls, arrived at San Antonio for his basic training Sunday.

Plants Crossing Ocean With 30-Foot Hatch

SWAMPSCOTT, Mass. (AP) — A former Harvard and Boston University football player leaves today on the first leg of a solo voyage across the Atlantic in a homemade 30-foot boat.

George Boston, 33, estimated it will take him 40 days to cover the 2,000 miles to the Azores and another 20 for the 1,000-mile trip from there to Gibraltar in his double-end auxiliary ketch Tahiti.

Boston said he may continue around the world in the ketch, if he reaches Gibraltar.

If you have heat prostration your body is cold and bluish-pale and needs application of heat in contrast to sunstroke when your body is hot and red and needs cooling.

They also had time to visit WDAF and then a sightseeing tour over the Better Homes Area of Kansas City. For their evening meal they went to Marshall's Restaurant and the day ended with going to the Starlight Theatre. The group arrived home about 1 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burke of Sedalia spent Wednesday with his mother, Mrs. E. P. Burke.

Mrs. Cassie Smith returned Wednesday from a two-weeks vacation in Eldon and at the Lake of the Ozarks.

for such purposes. This reduction in the amount of commercial and industrial zoning still permits over 100 per cent expansion of the present business area in the city, plus over 300 per cent increase in the present industrial area.

The area zoned off business in the downtown area has been expanded to allow twice the amount of business that exists there now.

Thus no monopoly is created. The area along Limit Avenue south of Broadway has been changed to accommodate considerable additional business.

The new zoning map was based on a new land use survey showing present uses of all property in the city, and an effort made to reduce so far as possible non-conforming uses. Such non-conforming uses, as for instance as business in a residence district, however, may remain indefinitely under the terms of the ordinance if no major alterations or additions are made to the building. Therefore no present business should suffer material hardship as a result of this revised zoning.

The orderly development of a city has been termed "a most important determinant of its future value as an efficient and pleasant place in which to live." Fortunately cities have the statutory power to control their growth through regulations and restrictions on location of various land and buildings, amounts of open space around such buildings, off-street parking and loading, and other controls which are designed to safeguard the health, safety, morals of the general welfare of the public.

Lakes Huron and Michigan are more than 21 feet lower than Lake Superior.

It's a good thing we mothers have CLOROX on our team!

CLOROX makes linens more than white... it makes them sanitary, too!

Most mothers know they can easily get rid of dinginess, stains...even soot and mildew...simply by laundering with Clorox. And Clorox makes white and color-fast cottons and linens extra clean, safer for health, because it makes them sanitary. No other home laundering product equals Clorox in germ-killing efficiency!

Used in routine cleaning, Clorox removes stains and unpleasant odors...makes surfaces sanitary...all without scrubbing! In fact, hundreds of public health departments recommend the Clorox type of disinfection. Why not save steps by keeping Clorox handy in bathroom and kitchen? See the label for directions and other house-cleaning hints.

4-H Members Model Blouses Made By Hand

By Pauline Chamberlin
HUGHESVILLE—The Longwood Extension Club met with Mrs. Virgil Ellis Tuesday, July 5. At this meeting the following 4-H Club girls modeled blouses they had made: Dana Smith, Joyce Stevens, Nancy Major, Janet Shane, Mary Louise Anderson and Mary Ann Smith. Mrs. Dan Smith joined the Extension Club at this meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hopkins, Clifford, Sharon and Charlotte have moved back into this vicinity from Parkville where they have lived the past year.

Mrs. Charles Merkel, Sharps, Fla., and Mrs. Ed Harmon, Ann Arbor, Mich., sisters of Mrs. Bettie Thornton have been visiting Mrs. Thornton. Mr. and Mrs. James Wiley and Robert, Mrs. E. J. Cowden, Flint, Mich., has also been a visitor having driven the sisters down from Michigan. Mrs. Merkel had a visit with her son, Dr. Charles Merkel, at Detroit before coming down on this visit.

Robert Wiley is well now from the gash he received on his leg from a weed hook he was using.

Mrs. Arnold Brownfield has returned home from the Palmer Clinic at Davenport, Ia., where she has received treatment for two weeks.

Clara Phillips, who graduated from high school this spring has employment in the office of the Pepsi-Cola Co. in Sedalia.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Marshall, who own and operate the Hughesville Locker Plant, are having a slaughter house built one-half mile south of Hughesville on land recently purchased from Ed Callis. The building is being constructed of concrete blocks. A well is also in process of being drilled.

Robert England is home from the Navy on furlough. He will leave for California with Mrs. England, the former Dorothy Gray, on July 15. They will go by way of Park City, Utah, to visit Mrs. England's sister, Mrs. Lane Mathie and husband. Mr. England will be stationed for a time in California and will then be sent back to the Philippines where he has been stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Phillips have received word from their daughter, Wanda, who was injured in a burning building at Yellowstone National Park, that she has recovered from the burns on her hands and is back at her work.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Chamberlin witnessed a small windstorm late Tuesday afternoon, which passed close by their turkey range, breaking trees and laying growing corn flat in its path.

J. R. Chamberlin has returned from Wisconsin where he has been an engineering instructor in the National Guard. After a two-week stay at home he will go back to Ft. Riley where he was originally stationed. He is soon to be released, however, as he plans to attend the University of Missouri this fall.

Those attending the funeral services of Mr. F. C. Bunch on Friday from this vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Lowrey, Mr. Broadus Wiley, Mr. B. E. Walek, Mrs. Jason Chamberlin and Pauline Chamberlin.

Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McFarland visited the Baptist Church and showed slides of the Harmony Baptist Association Girls' Auxiliary and Royal Ambassador camp which is held each year at the Assembly of God camp grounds at Rocky Mountain on Lake of the Ozarks. The Rev. H. W. Chaney is camp director.

Mrs. W. T. Smith is ill with a badly infected throat.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Smith entertained guests over the Fourth of July holiday which were Mrs. Smith's brother, Russell Hurd, of Milwaukee, who attends an electronics school and a sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Melford Eaton and 13-month-old daughter, Elaine.

Loretta Schroeder who attends Central Missouri State College and who is majoring in elementary education spends her weekends in Hughesville.

Mrs. L. H. Powell, who makes her home with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Schroeder, is spending the week with her son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. David Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lowrey returned to their home Thursday evening after an extended stay at Hot Springs, N.M., which is now widely known as Truth and Consequences. Mr. Lowrey is much improved.

Mrs. Charles Corson and children, Georgia, Daisy, Charles, Deborah and Margaret Ann Arnold, a niece of Mrs. Corson's had a trip to Jefferson City last Thursday. They took a picnic lunch which they enjoyed in Washington Park. They went through the Capitol building. They also visited several stores.

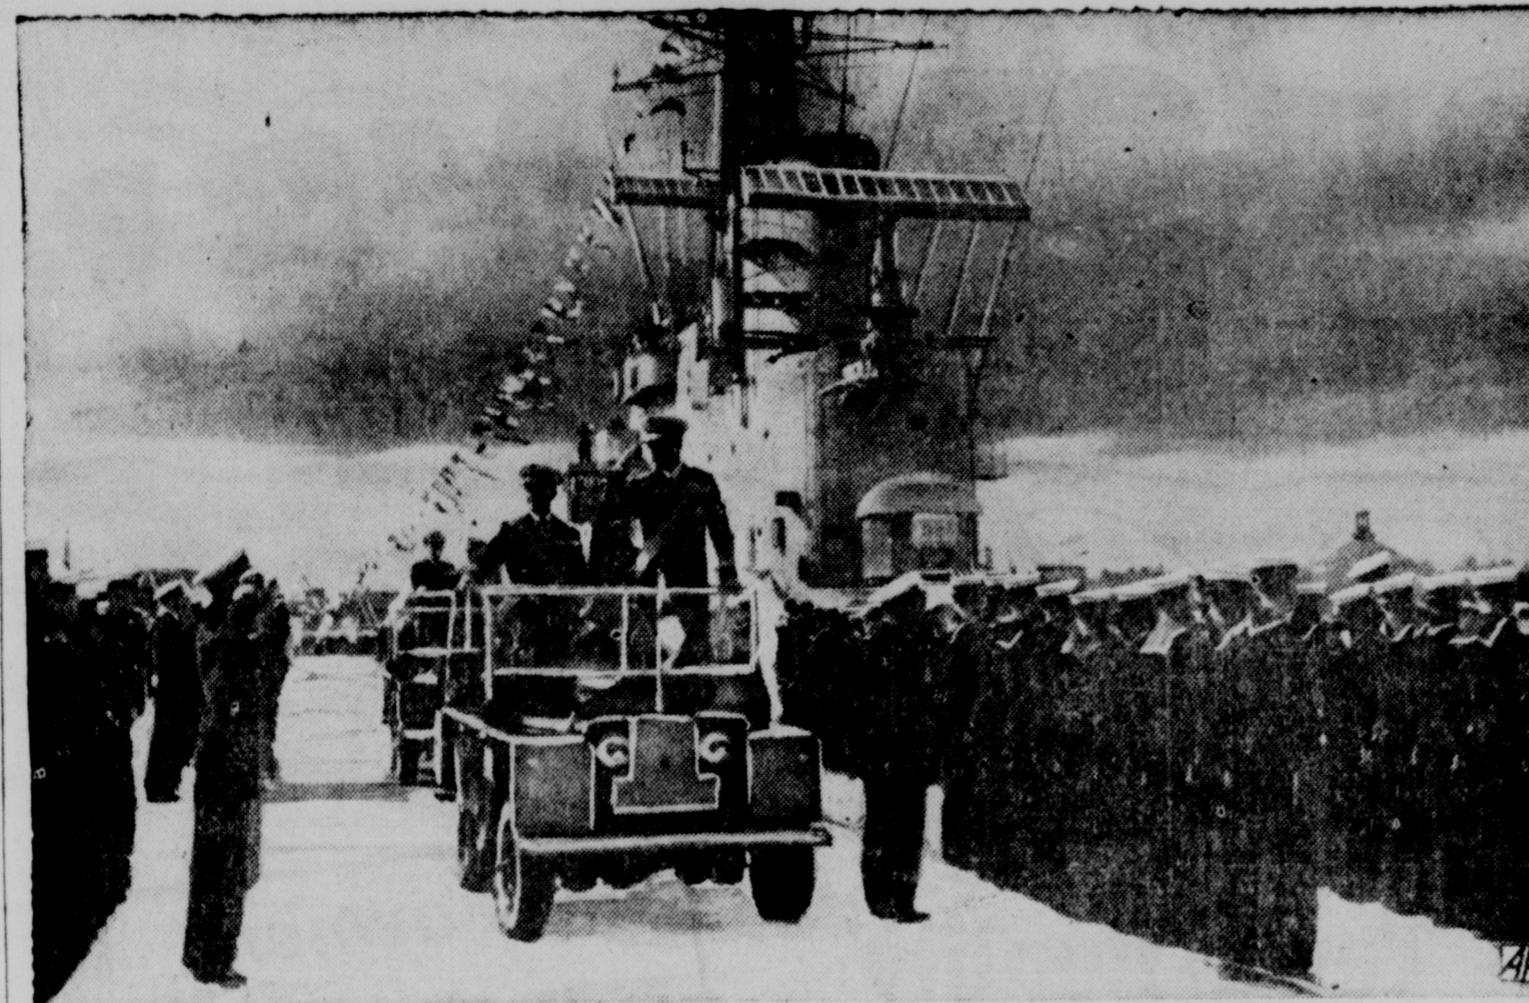

Will Thomas is continuing to improve in his home after undergoing surgery. He returned from the Bothwell Hospital last Tuesday.

In Person?

RALEIGH, N.C.—The Department of Conservation and Development Tourist Bureau attempts to fulfill every request. But Michael L. Taft, bureau chief, received one request that was "too large an order."

"Scribbled in a childish scrawl, it said:

"Please send me the governor of North Carolina."

Mountain Folk Have Dignity Along With Youthful Ideas

By HAL BOYLE

GATLINBURG, Tenn. — "In saying hill folk live with dignity, I feel that I am not making a misstatement, for indeed they do."

So said a lady here of whom I inquired what peculiar virtues mountain people have.

One example of mountain dignity is Jack Huff, who also superbly exemplifies another continuing virtue of the original Scotch-Irish settlers in the Great Smokies.

Jack built the lodge largely with supplies he toted up first on his own back, then on the backs of horses.

Would you carry your own mother on your back up a mountain merely to let her see a sunset and a sunrise that you enjoyed and, as a son, felt she should share?

Jack Huff did once. It's a good story. Ernie Pyle told it in 1940, and I'd like to tell it again and bring it up to now.

About 1900 Jack's father came here with a pocketful of timber money looking for more, and ended up by building the pioneer Mountain View Hotel. It lies here in a cup in the hills, now one of America's leading summer resorts.

Jack loved the mountains and didn't want to lean on his pappy. So he decided he'd build a lodge of his own atop Le Conte, one of the highest peaks in the Great Smokies, then reachable only by footpath. This was before the federal government took over the area and made it into one of the nation's most popular public parks.

Jack built the lodge largely with supplies he toted up first on his own back, then on the backs of horses.

He now has enough cabins there to sleep 48 people overnight. Ernie Pyle figured in 1940 that Jack had climbed some 15,000 miles in creating his mountain eyrie. During most of his trips up the 7½-mile journey he shoudered a 50-pound pack.

His description of the magnificent view at the top of the peak intrigued his mother. She was time-crippled.

Jack built a special-back chair and put his mother on it. She weighed more than 90 pounds, but her son carried her up the steep slopes with her favorite kitten sitting purring in her lap.

He thought it was a privilege to do this for his mother, not a hardship. But it still has left him a deep regret. For the weather turned bad. His mother spent several days on the peak and her rheumatism finally forced her to come down again, and she died in time, never having seen the sunrise or set from the peak that Jack loved. It was something he had known she wanted to know, too — and she never did.

Jack doesn't pack supplies up the trail on his back anymore. His father died four years ago, and now he has to run the big prosperous hotel here in town.

He worries about the service, more who want to do a job right just because they feel that's the way a job should be done.

Jack takes his exercise now golfing. His doctor tells him his heart isn't what it was 20 years ago.

But his spirit is, and now it's valley-bound. He makes plenty of money, I would guess, but his eyes shine when he talks about the past, and they dull when he talks about the present.

He is a tall, lean, big-eared, courteous, friendly man hungry for yesterday, lonesome for the youthful prime when his mind was

President Has PWA Lesson At Meeting

By Mrs. Russell Kendrick

KNOB NOSTER — The Presbyterian Women's Association met at the church Tuesday afternoon with 10 members present. Mrs. Kelly Neitzert, president, conducted the business meeting and was also in charge of the lesson "Glorious Calling". Devotions were led by Mrs. Jack Young. Mrs. Donald Smith led in prayer for the missionaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilgar Maher, Kansas City, returned home Monday following a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Yokley, Sr. Marilyn Maher, who had been visiting her grandparents the past three weeks returned home.

Mrs. Emily Walker, Clinton, spent last week with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Harold Helms. Mrs. Lorraine Hutchison returned to her home in Kansas City following a visit with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Helms.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenks spent from Monday until Wednesday in Camdenton with Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sellers.

Mr. and Mrs. Vera Pollock, Kansas City, returned to her home following a weekend visit with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Breon Leonard Kendrick and Elmer.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Orr, Dudley, recently visited their daughter, Mrs. Ina Richeson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Simons, Chicago, left Thursday following a visit with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Swisher.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Easley spent Tuesday in Kansas City. That evening they attended the ball game between the Athletics and Cleveland Indians.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hostin returned Tuesday from Kansas City following a visit with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Hostin.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dawes, Patricia and Priscilla, Wellington, Kan., came Wednesday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dawes and her sister, Mrs. Ina Richeson and family.

Although only 5 per cent of U.S. pupils attended them, half the schools in the United States in 1950 had only one room.

Final Camp Session For Boy Scout Troops

The final camp session for the Boy Scouts at Camp Pa-He-Tsi will close at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Those attending from Sedalia Troop 65 are David Parkhurst, Wayne Richardson, Steve Eisert and Larry Miller; from Troop 57, Kenneth Williams, David Snow, Jeff Lockett, Tommy Gray, Bengie Hill, Ricky Peck, David Dotson and Henri Mos; from Troop 57, Don Richardson, Jimmy Gray and Dick Snow.

Units in camp this week are from Warsaw, Sunrise Beach, Marshall, Chamois, Eugene, Osage Beach, Jefferson City, Tipton, Camdenton, Iberia and Sedalia. The Great Rivers Council with headquarters in Columbia will take over for a five week period after Saturday. A total of 99 Scouts, Explorers and leaders from 14 units are in camp for the final week from the Lake of the Ozarks Council.

Ever try adding cream to a tangy French dressing? Use two-thirds cup oil and ¼ cup vinegar plus salt, pepper and garlic powder to taste for the dressing; then slowly beat in a third cup of light cream.
